For the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the story from Mark's Gospel about two of Jesus' closest friends, James and John, who want seats of honor in "the Kingdom" they envision for Jesus. We can almost see Jesus shake his head in dismay that they have missed his point once again. He does not let his disciples get sidetracked into jealousy but calls them together again to give them his message: "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Paul's Letter to the Ephesians speaks about God's mercy and grace, calling us "members of the household of God" and saying that as a community we "are being built together into a dwelling place" of the Spirit. Paul, who was probably a prisoner at the time he wrote this letter, urges us to live "in a manner worthy of the call you have received" and calling us to patience and humility.

This week in Luke's Gospel we hear Jesus giving us his challenging message: be prepared for the coming of the Kingdom, be unencumbered enough to follow Jesus freely. When a rich man builds a place to store his surplus, God says, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you." Jesus tells us to "be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks." Our faith and calling as Christians mean we are called to go beyond what our world and culture requires: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Jesus envisions his mission on earth as a purifying fire, "and how I wish it were already blazing!" He tells us, "If you are to go with your opponent before a magistrate, make an effort to settle the matter on the way." The weekday gospels end with the parable of the gardener who saves the barren fig tree from being cut down, saying to his owner "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not, you can cut it down."

EL QUE QUIERA SER GRANDE...
 QUE SEA SERVIDOR DE LOS DEMAS

El evangelio de hoy nos dice que los discípulos Santiago y Juan le pidieron a Jesús algo que causó indignación en el resto del grupo de los Doce: pretendían sentarse a la derecha e izquierda de Jesús, respectivamente, cuando estuviera en su gloria.

- Es algo muy humano pretender grandezas que no nos corresponden, pero ante Dios tenemos que hacernos pequeños, todo por amor, ya que no somos nada mas que lo que somos a sus ojos.
- Los que sí les dejó muy claro a los Doce es que los seguidores de Jesús no deben oprimir a los demás como si fuesen sus dueños, que el que quiera ser grande tiene que ponerse al servicio de los demás.

El máximo ejemplo nos lo ha dado Jesús. Él es el modelo que seguir. Imitémoslo.
