

8/13/2019

Renovations Continue on the Back Building

Project Supervisor, Larry Mudd, owner of Mudd Construction works alongside his brother, Mark, and son, Kyle, pouring the new concrete slab in front of the building. The building went through a complete makeover, under the direction of Larry, to provide extra classrooms for the growing enrollment of St. Joseph School.