

The students enjoying the newly renovated "North Building."

All the students are transitioning very well to their new art room-equipped with a new ceramics kiln, the new science lab and math room.

The multipurpose room is now operational for the parish to use for small meetings and lectures.

