“In Her Own Words” Chronicles Saint’s Life.

As St. Mary Church celebrates 175 years, you are invited to attend “In Her Own Words,” a one-woman play on October 7 at 1:00pm. Based on the journals and letters of Indiana’s first saint and the founder of St. Mary School in Lanesville, “In Her Own Words” tells the story of St. Mother Theodore Guerin. Actress Sandra Hartlieb brings the saint to life, centering this historical portrayal of Mother Theodore on her strength, humor, pioneering hardships, determined spirit and profound trust in Providence. Come learn more about Mother Theodore’s life and the warm welcome she received by the earliest parishioners of St. Mary Church in Lanesville (1854). The performance will also include interludes of music and creative movement featuring Nora Pritchett of Sisterhood Drama Ministry. There is no cost for this anniversary event and reservations are not required.
