Stewardship Reflection: It Takes A Lifetime—Generations of faith-filled Catholic people have passed on to us the most precious gift that we possess—the gift of faith. As this generation's "good stewards", we are obligated to pass on the gift of faith to our children. Children primarily learn through the examples of their parents. Today, many parents are volunteering their time and talents to their churches and community groups and bringing their children along with them. More and more churches are encouraging children to return a portion of their "treasure"—their allowance or other earnings—with special children's offering envelopes. As we know from our own experience, it takes a lifetime to develop the habits of good stewardship. God has blessed us in so many marvelous ways. Stewardship is a way of life built around gratitude to God, lived out by returning a portion of the time, talent, and treasure allotted to us. There is no more precious inheritance we can pass on to our children than this lifestyle of gratitude. "If you will give these instructions. . . , you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the words of the faith and of the sound teaching you have followed" (1 Timothy 4:6).
