Fr Scott Says... go to confession. See the insert for an examination of conscience.

Papal Wisdom: The dialogue of Jesus with the rich young man (Mathew 19:16-26)... can serve as a useful guide for listening once more in a lively and direct way to His moral teaching... In the young man, whom [the] Gospel does not name, we can recognize every person who, consciously or not, approaches Christ the Redeemer of man and questions Him about morality. For the young man, the question is not so much about rules to be followed, but about the full meaning of life. This is in fact the aspiration at the heart of every human decision and action, the quiet searching and interior prompting which sets freedom in motion... it is the echo of a call from God who is the origin and goal of man's life. ~St. John Paul II, Veritatis Splendor, ¶16-7

Advent Confessions are scheduled for Monday, Dec. 10. Our First Communion class will make their first Confessions at 5pm, and the general parish is invited to file in after, around 5:15pm. Four priests will be available at least until 6pm.

Thank you to everyone who has participated in our Stewardship Campaign! We have had an amazing response! If you already filled out a Commitment Card and yet received an additional letter asking you to fill out a "Special Response Form", please disregard that letter and form. It was not meant for you and was sent as result of a clerical error made by the Cathedral Corporation, the third party company coordinating the campaign. We apologize for any repetitive mail that you have received on their part. That was not supposed to happen. Again, thank you to everyone for your response and participation!
