TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

November is a month of remembrance for the dead, and cemeteries have long been a focus for prayer. Our tradition holds great respect for bodily remains, since the body was created and redeemed by God, was once the “dwelling place of the Holy Spirit,” and has a destiny of life with God in glory. The funeral practices of the early church contrasted greatly with those of the pagans, who had a great dread of the dead body. The ancient Christian funeral liturgy ended with the relatives and friends giving a final kiss to the body. It expressed affection and showed their faith that the grave would not be the last word. This kiss horrified pagans, who thought that any contact with the dead was degrading.

Every year on their loved one’s “birthday to life,” the Christians would return to the place of their burial to mark their profound communion with those whose lives were hidden in Christ. Typically, they buried the dead with their faces turned toward the east, symbolizing the rising of the Sun of Justice, Christ, at the end of days. They were attracted to the catacombs or burial grounds just as we are today. They would often celebrate the Eucharist at the tomb. Before long, as soon as Christians were allowed to build places for worship, they relocated cemeteries from beyond the city walls to surround the church. This was not so much because the church made the ground holy, but because the bodies of the saints hallowed the ground on which the church was built, a subtle but beautiful difference.

MARIAN MOVEMENT OF PRIESTS

St. Patrick's has a small prayer group that has been meeting for several years and would welcome new members to join them. They gather every Friday at 5:15 pm. Rosary and a pot luck meal in the Rose Room follow. Marian Movement of Priests books are available in Spanish and English. For a summary of what the Marian Movement of Priests is, go to the website for the USA at <http://www.mmp-usa.net>. Information is also posted on the bulletin boards.

Project Rachel, A Post-Abortion Healing Ministry

As a faithful community our prayers this month are for all aborted bies and those mothers who are deceased as a result of an abortion procedure. We are filled with gratitude for our God who is all loving, merciful, and forgiving, and waiting to heal those who reach out for help.

The Religious Articles Cabinet will be open the weekends of Nov. 24 and 25, and also Dec. 15 and 16.

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.
