TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although our Puritan forebears at Plymouth Rock were almost a hundred years removed from their Catholic roots, the old liturgical calendar still had an unconscious claim on their hearts. We've already seen how on Saint Martin's Day, November 11, medieval continental Europe observed a great harvest day of Thanksgiving, with games, dances, parades, and a festive dinner of roast goose. With the goose went ample draughts of "Saint Martin's Wine," the first wine of the new harvest. Martinmas celebrated full barns and larders stocked for the winter. Even after the Reformation, the tradition of eating goose on Saint Martin's Day was retained in Holland, and it was there that our Pilgrims encountered this tradition. When Governor Bradford sent four hunters out into the Massachusetts wilderness in the autumn of 1621, they did indeed find some geese and ducks, and were persuaded by the indigenous people to try turkey, too.

Just as the liturgical calendar has been tweaked over the years, President Roosevelt moved Thanksgiving to the third Thursday in November in 1939, probably to extend the Christmas shopping season. The protest was so great that in 1941 the day established by President Lincoln, the last Thursday in November, was restored. If the Pilgrims had known of the Martinmas connection, they might never have celebrated at all!

CHRIST IS KING

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now. By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity.

RESPECT LIFE COMMISSION

The Respect Life Commission of the Diocese of Reno is co-sponsoring three presentations at the annual Diocesan Conference in Sparks. Msgr. Michael T. Mannion knew St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta for 29 years and worked with her and her community in Rome, Calcutta, and Washington, D.C. He has decades of pastoral experience to assist healing for those who are wounded. He will present the following presentations on January 5, 2019: (1) Gathering the flock when afraid to belong; the psychological, spiritual, religious and social dynamics and pressures that come into play in a secular world for one who seeks to embrace and proclaim a culture of life; (2) Pastoral and sacramental reflection on the loss of life through abortion and violence: communicating a spirit of compassion and conviction in evangelization; and (3) Responding to the stories with love, in a spirit of civility and love, to those who are wounded is central to the behavior of one who seeks to live and communicate the prolife message. Many who mask their brokenness, which is sometimes exhibited in angry, defensive, and even confrontational reactions, can be reached more holistically through kindness.

TO REGISTER: Please visit: www.reno-diocesan-conference.org.

Please call the parish office if you know of someone who would like to be included in the prayer list.
