Ordinary Time

Thirtieth Sunday

“I Want To See!”

In response, Jesus relieved Bartimaeus of his blindness. Once he was able to see, Bartimaeus followed Jesus on the way. Seeing and believing – one action leads to the other, and together both lead to God and to discipleship. We rejoice with Bartimaeus because we are blessed with the ability to see both physically and spiritually and are able to share in his life changing experience.

Today’s Bulletin is printed in memory of Mitchell Lackey, Jr.
by Jeanette Lackey.

Flowers for the altar this weekend are donated in memory of Mary & Roman Wenske, Sr. by their family.

REFLECTION

Do We See?

As we come to the close of the Liturgical Year, we pause this Sunday to see how far we have come. How are we maturing in the Spirit? To what degree have we followed Jesus who leads us out of our blindness? Throughout this Liturgical Year we have examined several aspects of our faith. We have reflected on the history of our Salvation, the merciful compassion of God shown to us. We have meditated often and long on Jesus' life and death, on the meaning of his resurrection in our lives. How have we been transformed by this experience? Have our eyes been really opened and been enabled to leave behind whatever prevents us from living the Christian life as baptized followers of Christ?

Book of the Dead

In keeping with the Church's tradition of praying for the dead, we will display the Book of the Dead. It contains the names of our loved ones prayers were requested on the All Souls Envelopes. You are invited to leaf through the pages, and note the names. You may write the names of others you might want our parish family to pray for.

It is a holy and pious thought to pray for the dead.
