Fr. Prentice Dean, Pastor
Fr. Thomas Kennedy, Parochial Vicar

Welcome to The Catholic Church of St. Mary the Virgin. We are a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter authorized by Pope Benedict XVI in 2012 for Anglicans seeking to become Catholic. Ordinariate parishes are fully Catholic, while retaining elements of their Anglican heritage and embracing the roots of the Catholic faith's rich tradition through reverent liturgy and historical music. All Catholics are invited to participate in our Divine Worship liturgy and receive communion by kneeling (if able) at the altar rail and receiving our Lord on the tongue.

Sacrament of Marriage

Please contact the parish for details regarding the preparation program. Under Ordinariate policy, couples should contact a member of the parish clergy at least six months prior to their proposed wedding date.

Collect

O God, who declares thy almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace; that we, running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promise, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Scripture of the Mass

First Reading

Sirach 3:17-20, 28-29

My son, perform your tasks in meekness; then you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. The greater you are, the more you must humble yourself; so you will find favor with God. There are many who are noble and renowned, but it is to the humble that he reveals his mysteries. For great is the might of the Lord; he is glorified by the humble.

The affliction of the proud has no healing, for a plant of wickedness has taken root in them, though it will not be perceived. The mind of the wise man will ponder the words of the wise, and an attentive ear is the wise man's desire.

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses said by lector and people after the First Reading. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Gradual

My heart hath trusted in God, and I am helped:
therefore my heart danceth for joy,
and in my song I will praise him.
V. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord:
be not silent, O my God, nor depart.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

You have not come to what may be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers entreat that no further messages be spoken to them.

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the first-born who are enrolled in heaven, and to a judge who is God of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant.

8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Masses chanted by priest and people. Chanted by the choir at the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

One Sabbath when Jesus went to dine at the house of a ruler who belonged to the Pharisees, they were watching him.

Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, "When you are invited by any one to a marriage feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest a more eminent man than you be invited by him; and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your kinsmen or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return, and you be repaid. But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

News and Notes

SMV CCD Will Begin Soon!

We will begin our CCD program and the new course for Catholic women on Sunday, September 8 at 9:15 a.m.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will have an atrium for ages 3-6 and an atrium for ages 6-9. Religious Ed classes will be available for children ages 9-18. All classes will be held in the parish hall.

The new course for women on Pope Saint John Paul II "Letter to Women" will be held in the church offices located in the house at the rear of the parking lot.

Convivencia at SMV Is Changing

All married couples of the parish are invited to participate in upcoming monthly St. Mary's Family Guild (formerly Convivencia) events hosted by St. Mary the Virgin parish. The first meeting will be held on Saturday, September 7 at 3:00 p.m.

The purpose of the Family Guild is to foster spiritual growth, communication and charity between married couples. Couples from the parish will gather each first Saturday of the month beginning in September to read and discuss practical information related to marriage and family life from a Catholic perspective.

Meanwhile, children will be supervised by older family members while engaging in fun activities and skits focused on their own growth in the life of virtue and holiness. The meetings conclude with a potluck dinner and fellowship.

For more info or to express interest in participating in the upcoming Family Guild events, please contact Katie Aparicio at k.e.aparicio@gmail.com.
