PARISH WEBSITE: The parish council has decided to develop a consolidated website for all three parishes. The website sub-committee on the council is looking for people with experience with website development to work together to achieve this goal. We are also looking for an individual from each parish that would be responsible for relaying information about their parish to the website team to keep it updated. If you are interested in helping in either way please let Fr. David know. Thank you so much!
