Year of the Eucharist

“The faith of the Magi shone forth in its entire splendor in the two severe tests to which they were subjected and over which they triumphed: the silence of Jerusalem and the humiliations of Bethlehem. The law of Eucharistic worship began at Bethlehem to find its continuation in the cenacle of the Eucharist. What the kings began; we must continue.” † St. Peter Julian Eymard

New Year: 2019

As you know, it is a custom to make a New Year’s resolution in order to improve our lives in some way. As I said in my Christmas homily, let’s not make the resolution to lose weight ☺. Instead, I am asking all of us to make the New Year’s resolution to center our lives on Jesus in the Eucharist. During this “Year of the Eucharist,” we are asking our Blessed Mother at the end of each Mass to help us center our lives on Jesus in the Eucharist. Each of us has to determine what that means for ourselves. It might mean more faithful Sunday Mass attendance. It might mean going to Mass an extra time during the week or as often as we can. It might mean going to Eucharistic Adoration on Sunday afternoons in Havana or before the weekday Masses when possible. It might mean stopping in at the Church to pay Jesus a visit a few times each week. Whatever centering your life on the Eucharist means to you, I am asking all of us to make a concrete resolution for 2019 and then to follow through as best as we can. Losing weight might improve your life somewhat, but if you are really looking for a transformation, center your life on Jesus in the Eucharist! Jesus is the answer to all the struggles we are experiencing and He is really and truly living in our midst, in our churches, in the tabernacle, in the little white communion host! Let’s take advantage of His true presence! That is why He left us this precious gift! May Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament intercede for us!

~ Fr. David
