All Souls Day Indulgences

A plenary indulgence is granted to the Christian faithful who devoutly visit a church or an oratory on All Souls Day, November 2, and who prays the Lord's Prayer and the Creed. The other normal conditions apply – these are listed below. Plenary indulgences are applicable only for the souls in purgatory.

"Handbook of Indulgences", Grant #67, p. 91.

An indulgence is [also] granted the Christian faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, if only [praying] mentally, for the dead. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls in purgatory. This indulgence is a plenary one from November 1 through November 8 and can be gained on each one of these days. On the other days of the year this indulgence is a partial one. The other normal conditions apply – these are listed below.

"Handbook of Indulgences", Grant #13, p. 47.

The normal conditions for a Plenary Indulgence are:

1. Sacramental Confession and absolution (on the days immediately before or after performing the indulgenced act, if that cannot be done on the day of performing the act itself).
2. Reception of Holy Communion (preferably on the day of performing the act itself)
3. Detachment from all sin.
4. Prayer for the Pope's intentions.
