SCHOOL NEWS:

What a wonderful day we had on our Pilgrimage. Our visit to Fisher Catholic School for Mass for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception was very nice. The faculty and staff of Fisher were impressed when we sang our song, "All in All." Our students were very well behaved, used great manners in the cafeteria and were very respectful. We visited St. Bernadette's and Father Reade led us in a prayer service. Afterwards, we visited the grotto of St. Bernadette on the Church grounds. We prayed, we sang and we thanked God for our blessed mother, Mary. We remembered in a special way our mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, neighbor or another woman who touched our heart. Highlights of the special Christmas program will be shared later. Keep the blessing of Christmas peace...

Mrs. D.

November Virtue Assembly Awards: Emma Mitchell, Reece Hagy, Gabby Siemer, Elliot Boley, Nick Losco, Sarah Mooney, Claire Bowen-Kunkler, Elle Mitchell and Nora Saffell. Congratulations to these students! The virtue for December is Patience. The 12 day Christmas Court down winners so far: Day 1: Nora Saffell won a snowman door hanger; Day 2: Ryan Siemer – Wooden Season Greeting Wall Hanging; Day 3: Claire Reed – Christmas bear with sweater; Day 4: Aubrey Semler – Polar Bear; Day 5: Gavyn Searls – Assorted Travel Games/Christmas Pencils; Day 6: Malakye Thresher – $10.00 Gift Certificate to Secret Santa Shop; Day 7: Alicia Matheny – Christmas CD with puzzle; Day 8: Elsie Zinn – set of handcrafted Christmas rabbits..

Alumni playing basketball: Johnny Bowen, Kunkler and Bailey Conrad – Fisher Catholic High School; Dillon Schaumleffel, Derek Kunkler, Travis Kunkler, Carter Hagy, Riley Hagy, Allison Losco, and Drew Ridenour – Rosecrans High School; Lauren Skillman and Emily Bartholic – New Lexington High School

Bowling: Emily Vigue and Michael Mooney – Fisher Catholic High School; Zoey Stenson – New Lexington High School. Swimming – Brendon Schaumleffel – Rosecrans High School.

Amazing Students...Amazing Alumni. Randall Tolley, a 7th grader, is certainly keeping his parents busy! He is a member of the New Lexington Youth Bowling League and the swim team for Muskingum Valley Power. Good Luck, Randall! Randall also helped paint the window of the Auto Zone in South Zanesville for Christmas with six other kids. Randall is the son of Randy and Tina Tolley.

Zoe Stenson, an alumna of St. Rose, is a member of the New Lexington Bowling Team coached by her mother, Jennifer Stenson. The following students participated in the Elks Hoop Shoot: Malia McClenaghan, Joe Stenson, Sophie Hillis, Thomas Spohn, Aliyah Compston and Will Stenson. The following are moving on in the Hoop Shoot sponsored by the Elks Lodge: Joe Stenson, Sophie Hillis and Thomas Spohn, thanks to the Home and School Association, people who volunteered and Jennifer Reed who volunteered their time for the Secret Santa Shop. We have accumulated 19,099 points for My Coke Rewards! Save those printer Cartridges. We have received $27.40 for our first mailing. Thanks! Thanks also to Barbara Nash, who stepped in for Mrs. Russell, our reading teacher as she recuperates from knee surgery, and to Carla Sherlock, who replaced Mrs. Ewing on maternity leave.

7th & 8th grades Chimes and Caroling: We want to acknowledge our 7th and 8th Grade students who set up trees in church, went caroling and played in the chime choir. They made a stop at the Senior Center, caroled at various homes in New Lexington, and ended at the Genesis Rehab Center. We appreciate Fr. Jim for directing the choir and setting up this event, our drivers; Jennifer Reed and Mrs. Mooney and Mr. Medaugh for hauling equipment and directing the chime choir.

Even though we are out of school, we rely on the students to serve the Masses during breaks, please check the daily schedules. My Coke Rewards have accumulated 19,404 points, the project will continue throughout the year. Enjoy your time off! School resumes January 5, 2015 and be safe as you travel this holiday season!!

OLD CATHOLIC CEMETERY GETS NEW SIGN AND CLEAN-UP:

Chapel Hill Cemetery on Irish Ridge Road in Monroe Township received a new sign and a clean-up on November 2nd (All Souls Day). The sign was purchased by Dorothy Goebel and Larry Kent, descendants of the Weiner Family and dedicated on November 2nd with a short ceremony that was led by Mark Weiner, also a descendant who is participating in the Deacon's program of the Diocese of Columbus. The clean-up took place after the dedication. This clean-up and new sign has been a heartfelt desire of Mrs. Goebel's and has finally happened. The cemetery was the burial ground for the Catholic people in the area who were mainly members of the Chapel Hill or otherwise know as St. Francis Catholic Church that existed on the site just a few years up the road from the cemetery for the mid 1800's until the early 1900's. The earliest burial found in the records was of Mary Ann Masterson, in 1840, and the last burial was Mary A. Haughran, in 1953. Chapel Hill Cemetery and Church are very near the once booming coal-mining town of San Toy. The ancestors of the Weiner family are interred in Chapel Hill, beginning with the earliest settler, Fraz Weiner (1780-1865) who migrated here with his wife Catherine and four children from Bavaria, Germany in 1831. The Weiner family members participated in the dedication and clean-up. Harriett Weiner Densmore the great-great granddaughter of Franz was in attendance, she is the oldest living member of that segment of the Weiner family. The Monroe Township trustees strive to maintain the old cemetery by mowing.
