WELCOME!!! WELCOME!!!

To Bishop Campbell and our new Pastor, Fr. Michael Hartge.
We are happy to have Fr. Hartge with us in the Consortium.
May God bless his days here!!

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS, GREETINGS IN OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST!

I am overjoyed to be here as pastor of these four parishes in the Perry County Consortium. I come here with "consortium experience" after having spent 3 years as a parochial vicar or more commonly called associate pastor in a four-parish consortium out of Chillicothe St. Peter. Those 4 parishes were in 4 different counties!

Maybe more importantly than "consortium experience," I also come to you with fair food booth experience. I've served many burgers and chicken and noodles along with gallons of sweet tea at the Fayette County Fair Booth, which supports the work of St. Colman parish in Washington Court House. (Due to bulletin deadlines, I write this before the fair even started, so I hope I met many of you at the fair. I also hope I somehow lived up to my fair booth skills now that I bragged prematurely.)

We are frequently reminded by the Second Vatican Council, Pope St. John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI and now Pope Francis that holiness is for everyone and it is found in the ordinary actions of our vocation, work and family life. Holiness is what the Lord wants for us!

I am the second of 4 children born to Frank and Judy Hartge, who have been married for 35 years. I'm grateful for the support my family has shown me in my own vocation as they strive for holiness in theirs.

I am very grateful to Bishop Campbell for entrusting me with such a large and exciting assignment in Perry County so early in my priesthood. Bishop Campbell will be with us on Sunday, July 29 at the 10:30 a.m. Mass at St. Rose to formally install me as pastor of these four parishes. I hope to see many of you there! We will have a light lunch reception following Mass in the Parish Activity Center.

Please pray for me as I settle into my new mission as pastor here. I have been praying for you, and will continue to do so.

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Hartge
