The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Sunday Reflection

Unrepeatable Persons

"After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers." As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, this Gospel exposes us to a strange tension. While this family is one we can look to for an example, they are not quite the same family unit as everyone else. There is an otherness to Jesus, something profound. And yet, perhaps on second thought, are our families so different?

When Mary and Joseph encountered Jesus in the temple, "they were astonished." But at what? Mary's response is surprised. They're not astonished that Jesus is preaching in a place for respected teachers. They're not astonished that their son has captured the attention of the wisest men of the time period. They're astonished at his seemingly disobedient behavior! "Son, why have you done this to us?" (continued on p 3)

We wish you all

A glad and peaceful Christmastide with all its memories sweet;
May hope and love and joy be yours
with kindly friends to greet;
The echo of the angels' song.
The star's clear guiding light.
The Christ child in your heart and home,
to make this Christmas bright.

Teens Rest and Reflect.

It's the end of 2018. The church is celebrating the Holy Family. You may think of the Holy Family from long ago; Mary Joseph and Jesus but actually it's a celebration of Family life today —Yes a celebration of your Holy Family.

In the best of times, Family life is fun especially when your focus is bring joy to others in the family, like Mother's Day, Father's Day, Christmas or the best of day-your Birthday. Family life for the most part is about sharing Love.. Family love is our first experience in living Faith daily. It's true what the world needs now is Family Love. Love is our connection with the Holy Family.

It's very helpful to think, how do I bring my best self to my Father, Mother, Sister(s)and/ or Brother(s)? When the days aren't so great and times are hard at home, how does one make through the hard times in family life? When your closest relations are at odds with you and it seems nothing makes sense from your perspective-wait there may be one possible way of turning chaos and confusion around. It takes courage never force the outcome the way you see it. Instead of voicing your opinion that may result in more arguments give yourself time to rest. Rest your voice. Don't speak abruptly. Let your feeling settle. Give yourself your siblings and your parents an opportunity. to express themselves.

This take a tremendous love for your family. This is what it takes to be part of a Holy Family. Listen with Love. Trust that your Faith will see your way through difficult times.

Jesus life was all about what it means to be part of a Holy Family. Jesus says to us those that have ears listen. Refrain from the temptation of being making your way the only way. Get quite and listen to your heart in silence. Your loving heart will guide your way. Let your gift be your to your family your best self. Truth is you are born into your family for a great purpose that only time and prayer will reveal to you what that purpose is.

Appreciate that church is where you can come and hear the "Living Word during Mass. It is special time when we get are higher guidance. Thank God for your parents that they are spending time with you listening to the same

Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." All our children have an "otherness" about them, something that makes them unique and different. They are distinctly not "me." What will our own children become? What temple will they wander off to? Who will they astound?

Be inspired to do good at home and when circumstances are different you can be part of doing what Jesus commands us to do—Love one another as I have Loved you..when Times are heavy and mistakes are made—ask for forgiveness an increase your effort to do better. When we are truly sorry, forgiveness makes all things right again with our family.

The greatest expression that You can give everyday is love. Teens pray for your Holy Family at home and Church Family too.

Retrouvaille

Presents under the Christmas tree are truly wonderful, but they can't heal a hurting marriage. Transforming your marriage into a mutually satisfying relationship is the "gift that keeps on giving." With the help of Retrouvaille, it can be done. Retrouvaille is a Christian peer ministry designed to help heal troubled marriages. This could very well be the best Christmas gift you could ever give to yourself, your spouse, your children, your family, and your friends! The next Retrouvaille program will begin on Friday, January 18 in Romulus. For confidential information or to register, call 800-470-2230 or visit HelpOurMarriage.com.

Cherishing the Gift of Time

Time. In today's world, there never seems to be enough of it. As the speed of family life continues to increase, how we use our time together (and even the time we are apart) becomes more important. Here are some ways to help your family celebrate the gift of time.

Time for Renewal: The feast of the Baptism of the Lord is Sunday, January 13. Our baptism marks the beginning of our new life in Christ. Light a white candle in the center of your table to celebrate everyone's baptism and Christ's light in the world.

Time Together: The essence of what we see in the lives of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph is a relationship of love — loving God and loving each other. Hold hands as you pray together at mealtimes this month.

Time for Self: Use the following prayer to reflect on how you might use your time to become a more fervent follower of Christ.

I am the New Year.

I am an unspoiled page in your book of time.

I am your next chance at the art of living.

In me lies the potential of all that you have dreamed
but didn't dare to do,

all that you hoped but did not perform,

all you prayed for but did not yet experience.

These dreams slumber lightly, waiting to be awakened
by the touch of an enduring purpose.

I am your opportunity to renew your allegiance to Christ who said, "Behold, I make all things new."

I am the New Year. (author unknown)

Time for God: Finding ways to connect and build your relationship with God will help you build better relationships with your family and friends. Talk about where you've encountered Christ's presence this week:

- Did you see Christ at school?
(Maybe someone was being a good friend.)
- Did you see Christ at home?
(Perhaps when we love each other by helping with homework or picking up our toys?)
- Did you see Christ in our world?
(Who are the helpers doing good in society?)

(from Family Faith On The Go, Our Sunday Visitor)

Everyday Stewardship

Do you practice good stewardship with your family? Stewardship is about more than offerings to a church or charity. It is about continually giving of ourselves in a way that gives glory to God.

Sharing our gifts with those in our immediate family honors God and is evidence of your gratitude for these people in your life.

How can we effectively accomplish this? One way is to reflect on how the 6 characteristics of an Everyday Steward are present in our family relationships. Are we mindful when we are with our family members? Do we focus on them and their needs rather than our phone or TV? Do we hold up our family in prayer? Their concerns should be our concerns. Do we find ways to show how grateful we are for having them in our lives?

When we find ourselves lacking in gratitude, we should reflect on what life would be like without them. Do we help one another without being asked because (continued on page 7)

we have a gracious heart? It is easy to take for granted those we see all the time. Hospitality is not just for the stranger or guest. Are we committed to a life of stewardship that not only serves as a good example, but also helps our relatives thrive? Using our gifts without wisdom might mean we have little to give to those we love. Finally, do we hold each other accountable for our decisions and shortcomings?

We are on the journey of life together, and no one exists in the Body of Christ alone. Stewardship is about the entirety of our lives. Our faith life is not reserved to Mass on a Sunday. It all begins and ends with those we love.

First Reading

Hannah, the mother of the prophet Samuel, is portrayed as a woman of great faith. Upon reflection, how would you describe the faith of your mother?

Second Reading

John teaches us that we can be called "children of God" if we believe in Jesus and love one another. How well do you think you do these two mandates?

Gospel Reading

Luke is the only evangelist to record an event in the life of Jesus as a boy. It is an event filled with "great anxiety" for Joseph and Mary. What lesson(s) do you learn from this story?

Q What do we know about Joseph, Mary, and the rest of Jesus' relatives?

A You may see pictures of Joseph, Mary, and a young Jesus on the feast of the Holy Family. What we do know of them has been treasured throughout the ages. Both Joseph and Mary came from the tribe of Judah and were distant descendants of King David. Tradition gives us the names of Mary's parents - Anne and Joachim - and we venerate them as saints. Joseph was a carpenter, and he taught Jesus his trade. We know that St. Elizabeth was related to Mary, and we call St. John the Baptist Jesus' "cousin."

In the Bible, we also see references to Jesus' "brothers and sisters." Who were these people? The most likely theory rests in the language of the time period. The Hebrew people spoke Aramaic. This language had no words for specific family roles. All male relatives were "brother" and all female relatives were "sister." Like many people of his day, Jesus had a large family! So large that he got lost and needed to be found in the Temple. When you think of the Holy Family, remember that Jesus probably had quirky uncles, nosy aunts, doting grandparents, and cousins to play with, just like us!
