The Gospel of the Family: Joy for the World

“Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience ...above all, clothe yourselves with love!”
(Colossians 3.12, 14)

February 11th 2018

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Pastor, Fr. Gerard Monaghan

Cure of the Leper Leprosy was a dreaded, but misunderstood disease. The illness we call leprosy is actually “Hansen’s disease,” a sometimes fatal but non-contagious ailment. Yet, quarantine was the treatment for those in the past. A leper dared to break that quarantine so he could receive a cure from Jesus. By breaking that taboo, both the leper and Jesus became unclean. By breaking that taboo, both did the will of God.

GOSPEL A leper approached Jesus with a desire for a cure. Jesus obliged. In fact, Jesus made himself unclean by touching the leper, but that touch healed the sick man. Despite instructions to the contrary, the healed man went out and spread the Good News of this Jesus, the one who had God’s power.

For those near and Dear to our hearts
