The Gospel of the Family:
Joy for the World

“Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience ...above all, clothe yourselves with love!”
(Colossians 3.12, 14)

6th Sunday of Easter

Pastor, Fr. Gerard Monaghan

Love One Another As I Have Loved You "Love makes the world go round." While we might dispute the wisdom of that saying, we cannot deny its truth when it comes to faith. God loves us and gave his Son for us. We are to love others in the same way. This love should define our identity and mission as Christians.

GOSPEL In John's Gospel, Jesus defined the reason for being a Christian and the true cause of evangelization in love. God loved us and sent his Son to us as a sign of that love. We are to love, in order to form community and invite others to join us.

Parish News & Events

Planning for the Future

As a result of the conversations with the Council and parish about changing our location and Mass time for our Sunday Eucharistic celebration, I emailed the possibilities to the Archbishop and here is the reply:

Hi Fr. Gerard,

Thank you for your message. I am responding on behalf of the Archbishop.

You bring up some good points with regards to location(s) of worship. If the St. Edith Stein Community prefers to transition to a different venue for their weekly Sunday Mass, then we are not opposed. In fact, it might even be advantageous if St. Edith Stein worshipped at St. Margaret Mary as it would be an opportunity to unify the two communities under one roof as they prepare to establish a new Parish community with a new church building nearby.

Please proceed as see you fit, and please advise English Pastoral Services and the Chancery of any changes.

Blessings,

Most Rev./Mgr Christian Riesbeck, CC, V.G.

Auxiliary Bishop/Évêque auxiliaire
