

Welcome To St. Edith Stein Parish

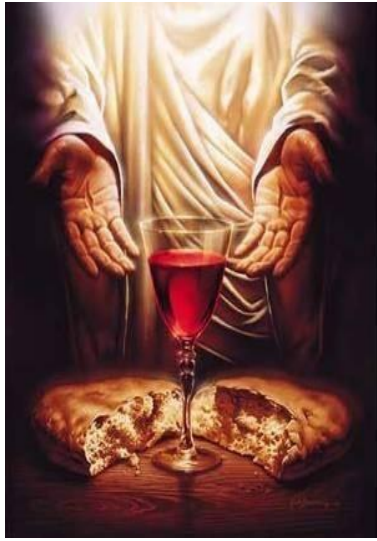

The Gospel of the Family: Joy
for the World

“Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience ...above all, clothe yourselves with love!”
(Colossians 3.12, 14)

Body and Blood of Christ

Fr. Gerard Monaghan

This is My Body :

The words of Jesus at the Last Supper will echo as long as Christian faith survives on the earth, for these words define his relationship with us. He came to give himself to us. We are to carry that self-giving spirit to others.

GOSPEL In this week's gospel, we reflect on the Words of Institution we find in Mark's gospel. Especially in Mark, the words Jesus spoke would play themselves out in his Passion. He gave himself to his followers. His words would echo in his death and Resurrection.

For the repose of the soul of Gail Surette requested by her husband Tony Surette.

Prayer Intentions

Remi Pelletier, Patricia McMillan, Decon Bob Van De Larr.

...That God touches them with his healing hands and gives them the comfort and peace they need to get through this time of sickness. Amen

Notable Volunteers

Volunteers make our parish vibrant. We thank all of you for offering your gifts to build up our community and the Body of Christ here on earth.

Last weekend we acknowledge the Barber Family as our Notable Volunteers, Kim prepares the bulletin, records the envelopes and prepares the income tax receipts (various other things).

Rob is one of our sacristans/Mass coordinators, who fills in when everyone else goes south for months and a Eucharistic minister.

Kayla and Zach served for years and Kayla still helps out when we need altar servers for major celebrations. Congratulations and Thank You.
