11th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Fr. Gerard Monaghan

A Picture Tells a Thousand Stories : Are you "visually oriented?" How does this orientation effect the language you use?

How many times have you told someone, "If you could only see it, you would understand"? Pictures do simplify explanations. Word images do the same thing. They make the difficult easy to communicate.

Jesus understood this principle well when he told the people about the Kingdom of God. He publicly preached with parables.
