The PERSONAL ORDINARIATE of the CHAIR of SAINT PETER

See, I am doing something

NEW

- Isaiah 43:19

The Bishop's Appeal 2019

RENEWING

the Catholic faith

In the last year, signs of the abundant life God intends for the Ordinariate have sprung forth across the diocese: New communities in California and Georgia. Growing congregations at established parishes in Maryland, Texas and New York. Ten new priests. Two new seminarians, bringing our total number to seven. The launch of Catholic classical education programs at parishes in Nebraska, Pennsylvania and Calgary. Robust courses of study for clergy, including an all-hands assembly for ordained priests and deacons and three separate formation weeks for clergy in training.

The way we express our faith — in the reverence of our worship, in the holiness of our lives — is drawing more and more members into our pews and to the fullness of faith.

Your generosity to the Bishop's Appeal will help the Ordinariate continue its seemingly inextinguishable activity, all for the glory of God.
