

Homily: The Fourteenth Sunday Of the Year
Theme

INTRODUCTION

One of the most important sights in the hot desert is an oasis. An oasis is a desert place where the traveler can stop refresh themselves get food and replenish water supplies for the journey ahead.

Each of us here needs an oasis in our lives. Today we live in a world where people are becoming increasingly weary in soul. There is so much stimulation, artificial excitement, varying opinions on any issue that our mind becomes numb. The processing of so much information can exhaust us.

We all need a spiritual oasis to which we can repair. For us Christians that oasis is prayer getting in touch with God

The oasis of prayer is crucial for our journey of life. Prayer is the place where we can draw together the threads of our life around Christ. Prayer is the place where we
