Weekly Reflection ~October 28
30th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Bartimaeus refused to shut up despite the urging of those around him. How persistent are you? Do you worry about what people will think of you? Are you afraid to speak up when you know others want you to keep quiet? Bartimaeus told Jesus what he wanted and was sure that Jesus would help him. Do you believe that Jesus is ready and willing to help you? Do you tell Jesus what your heart is yearning for—do you know what you are truly yearning for?

A Sainly Definition

The saint does anything that any other decent person does, only somewhat better and with a totally different motive.

All Saints Day & All Souls Day

Sometimes a little clarification between these two days can be helpful for us as Catholic Christians to celebrate the two days respectfully...

All Saints is a Holy Day of Obligation. It's a celebration of the communion of saints, those people we believe are in heaven, through good works and God's grace. It's a day when we are called to live as saints, to remind us how we're supposed to live. All Souls' Day is a day to pray for all the faithfully departed. Among Catholics, prayers are offered for those in purgatory, who are waiting to get into heaven. We pray for God's mercy on these souls and that they may enter heaven, through Christ.

WHAT DO I REALLY WANT FROM GOD? NOW THAT'S A QUESTION WORTH PUTTING INTO WORDS

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see."
Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Mk 10:51-52

Dear Lord,

We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around Your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide Your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May Your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May Your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love, seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

O Mary Queen of Priests, pray for us!

Please pray for:
