Weekly Reflection ~December 30
Holy Family

Once again we are reminded of the importance of forgiving one another. When we have been deeply hurt, it is hard to even think about forgiving the person who hurt us. Consider the times when you hurt someone you cared about and were forgiven. We always pray for God's forgiveness; but, do you believe God has forgiven you? Perhaps hardest of all, do you forgive yourself? Christ died on a cross for our sins—we have been forgiven. How does that affect your understanding of how you should forgive others? When you find it hard to forgive, ask the Lord to show you how.
