PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

JoAnn Ybarbo will receive
The Vocation Statue
Sunday, February 10th at 9:00 AM Mass.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

THE LIBERATORS WILL BE PERSECUTED

Today, the liturgy of the Word gives us two examples of people faithful to their mission: Jeremiah and Jesus, two prophets who came to find themselves in similar situations and who had to announce unwelcome truths to their listeners. The first reading tells us about the vocation of Jeremiah. God, knowing the difficulties he would be confronting, encouraged him to keep steady like an iron pillar, like a bronze wall.

The Gospel describes the rejection of another prophet, Jesus, by his own villagers, annoyed by his behavior and by his message. The second reading describes the charism of love and it can be linked to the theme of this Sunday because the Christian is the prophet of love, and for love, he risks even persecution.

Blessings!
