Volunteers Needed for Catholic Charities Family Learning Center

Catholic Charities Migration and Refugee Services is looking for individual and/or groups of volunteers for our Family Learning Center at St. Ignatius Martyr (1816 Rangeland Road) Mondays - Thursdays from 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm. This program provides free English classes, homework help, and daycare for refugee and immigrant families around Louisville. We are looking for volunteers to help tutor adults one on one, provide homework assistance for school-aged kids, and assist with daycare on site. Happy Valentine's Day

Raisin' the Rent

Join St. John Center for Homeless Men as they carry on the traditions from the 1920s Harlem Rent Parties, when neighbors would come together for a party to raise rent for their neighbors. Enjoy food, drink, music, auction and raffle. Event tickets and raffle chances are on sale now. Hurry, they are selling fast. www.bidpal.net/rtr.

A Note of Thanks – We have received a letter of appreciation from the seniors in the St. Bartholomew senior apartment building. They wanted to thank everyone that donated items to the gift bags they received at Christmas. They were just thrilled.
