Sanctuary Candles In Memory/Honor of

St. Mary's & St. Joseph's Churches
For the Families of the Parishes

St. Francis & Our Lady of Fatima Churches
In thanksgiving by Rod & Mary Emily Lauzon

From Deacon Garry Burnell

In the Gospels Jesus speaks to us about mercy and how we should be bearers of mercy. So whom do we need to forgive? Is there someone in the family with whom we have not spoken? Is there someone at work who has wronged us? A spouse who has betrayed us? Is there a child who has rebelled? Can we be as generous as our merciful God? Is there anything more God-like than forgiveness?

Jesus' ministry was often about forgiveness - eating with sinners, forgiving sins publicly, gently preaching about his Father's unbounded mercy. In the ultimate act of forgiveness, obedient to his Father, Jesus gave his life for the forgiveness of our sins. This is what salvation history is all about - forgiveness. How can we possibly be grateful enough for such unbounded mercy?

God has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation... entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Let us resolve to be ambassadors for Christ and share God's message of love and forgiveness.

Celebrate Christ 2017: Called to Lead

Leadership is a vital factor in the implementation of our diocesan priorities: creating a culture of vocations, engaging families in the faith formation of their children and providing age appropriate opportunities for our youth leading to their encounter with Christ and His Church. Plan to attend Celebrate Christ 2017 at the Crowne Plaza in Lake Placid on Saturday, October 21, 2017. Chris Lowney, well known author on topics of Leadership Lessons from Pope Francis: Doing the Laundry, Dusty Shoes and the Monastery Bell will encourage us and support our efforts to carry out the diocesan priorities.

Registration information is available on our diocesan website www.rcdonny.org or by calling the Western Regional Faith Formation Office at (315) 782-3620. Registration for the event is required and must be made by September 29.

Vocations: We Are Called

Fight the good fight of faith. Take a firm hold on the everlasting life to which you are called. Pray for those who are called to run the race as priests, sisters, and brothers. If God may be calling you to the priesthood or consecrated life, talk to Fr. Tom or Fr. Doug Lucia at 315-386-2543, dluca@rcdonny.org or Fr. Tom Higman at 518-594-3907, thigman@rcdonny.org or Cathy Russell, Diocesan Vocation Coordinator at 315-393-2920 ext. 1450, or email: crussell@rcdonny.org

October 1: 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Ez 18:25-28 / Phil 2:1-11 / Mt 21:28-32

Today's gospel is an exchange between Jesus and the chief priests and elders, and it speaks of faith and trust and conversion. The elders didn't have faith in Jesus, nor did they trust his Word or the preaching of John the Baptist. They didn't accept the preaching of John the Baptist, even when they saw the fruits, namely that prostitutes and tax collectors were converted. Are we like the elders? Are we holding on so tightly to our own ideas and plans that we cannot hear Jesus' will for us? Do we ignore good that is being done in our midst, because we don't like or trust the one doing the good? Sometimes God will speak to us through the most unlikely characters and events. Today, pray to be open to God's will in our life, to imitate and follow his Son, so that others may recognize Jesus in their midst through the way we live our lives.
