July 15: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Am 7:12-15 / Eph 1:3-14 / Mk 6:7-13

Have you ever gone door to door to share the good news? Perhaps you participated in conducting the parish census a couple years ago? No doubt, the apostles were excited at the prospects of going out to preach and heal, but probably also a little apprehensive. Who would they encounter? Who will we encounter as we go forth from Mass today? The Lord has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavens. Let us pray that as we meet our neighbors, that they will see Christ in us and that seeds of faith will be planted that will bear much fruit.

NFP Awareness Week: July 22-28, 2018

USCCB annual initiative to increase awareness of God's plan for married love.

July 22-28 marks National NFP Awareness Week, an annual invitation to consider the beauty of God's plan for sex, love, and marriage. "Like so many other people who have made the switch to Natural Family Planning," writes Jennifer Fulwiler, "I simply couldn't be okay with any form of sterilization any more, whether temporary or permanent. In that place deep in the heart where the most important truths about our humanity reside, I know as surely as I know anything else that those Catholic teachings about human sexuality are true and good." To learn more about those teachings, or about NFP—a healthy, effective, and respectful approach to family planning—please contact the Diocesan NFP Office, apietropaoli@rcdony.org or 518-483-0459. Visit us at www.rcdony.org/nfp.html.

PLANNED GIVING: Capital Campaign

The Diocesan-wide It's Our Church, It's Our Future Capital Campaign will soon be upon us. The Diocese has set a $16 million goal, which will include $1.3 million for the 2018 Bishop's Fund Appeal. Of the funds raised, 75% will remain at the Parish for local needs such as programs and capital improvements. The remaining 25% benefits the entire Diocese supporting Retired Priests, Seminarians, Camp Guggenheim and St. Mary's Cathedral. Please prayerfully consider a gift to support our Church of the North Country. You will be receiving materials regarding the Campaign in the coming weeks.

Catechism Corner: Mortal and Venial Sins Part II (continued from last week)

Remedy: Catholics believe that the Church heals in the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession). The Sacrament is for spiritual healing. Catholics believe Jesus left the Sacrament because only God's grace can heal a wounded soul.

Penance helps Catholics atone for sins they've committed. Catholics think of sin like a bacteria or virus to the soul. When a person lies, cheats, steals or murders, it's like his soul is infected with millions of deadly germs. Sinning not only breaks God's laws - the Ten Commandments, for example - but wounds the sinner spiritually.

Confession: You must confess all known mortal sins to a priest. You can confess all your sins, but start with any mortal sins. A priest is bound by the most absolute secrecy and confidentiality known to humankind. Not even the Pope can get a priest to tell who went to him for confession or what was confessed. The priest must be willing to endure prison, torture, and death before violating the Seal of Confession, the secrecy of the sacrament.

Contrition: You must be sorry you committed the sins and resolve to do your best not to repeat them.

Penance: After you confess your sins, the priest gives you a penance to perform. It may involve any one of the corporal or spiritual works of mercy. Or it may be a set or numbers of prayers, such as the Our Father or the Hail Mary. (Remember, whatever the penance, it's merely a token, because Catholics believe that the sacrifice of Christ on the cross is what made atonement for our sins. Your penance is for your benefit - to remind you that God comes first and you come last.)

Absolution: The priest or bishop hearing your confession (deacon's don't have the power to celebrate this sacrament), offers forgiveness, saying a prayer that calls on God to give you absolution and peace.

Warning: Receiving the Eucharist with mortal sin on your soul is a sacrilege, which means using something sacred for an unworthy purpose. It's disrespect for the sacrament and another mortal sin. There is an error in thinking that missing Mass and Holy Days of Obligation is acceptable, (other than for a "serious reason for example illness, care of infants or dispensed by their own pastor" CCC 2181) however, missing Mass and Holy Days is a mortal sin.

Environmental Stewardship

Plastic is a subject that is foremost in the news right now. "The devastation of plastic pollution is not who we are as a global community. Now is the time for us to reflect on our own beauty, our power to affect our environment through individual action –we're starting with the plastic straw." Adrian Grenier, Lonely Whale Co-Founder. For more information on the Lonely Whale, please check out this web site <https://www.strawlessocean.org/lonelywhale/>.

Word On Fire

This week, Mark relays the story of Jesus giving the Twelve Apostles their "marching orders," the instructions on how they would go out and spread the word to the world. Notably, he tells them to go "two by two," laying the foundation for the communal nature of the Church. They are to bring nothing but the simple tools to keep them moving forward, and they are to be resolute in fighting the demons of the world-injustice, corruption and dysfunction. These were as much instructions for the Apostles as they are instructions for us to fulfill the mission of the Church today.

For the next several weeks, we are going to be reading from Paul's magnificent letter to the Ephesians. In our passage for today, we learn that we are situated within the context of a great theodrama, written and directed by God, and designed to lead us to eternal life. The Biblical drama has five acts: creation, the fall, the formation of Israel, Jesus Christ, and the Church. We read the Scriptures in order to discern the contours of that drama and, more importantly, our place within it. -Bishop Robert Barron
