Oct. 14th: 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 7:7-11 / Heb 4:12-13 / Mk 10:17-30

What is it that keeps us from following Jesus more fully? The rich man was attached to his wealth and position. He placed his security in his possessions. In our day we place a great deal of value on our independence. We have our plans and ideas, our retirement funds and our bank accounts, our houses and even our relationships which we often place ahead of our relationship with Jesus. Yet everything we have is a gift from God. Is there something that Jesus is calling you to let go of so that you can more freely follow him? Perhaps it is some material thing, perhaps it is something else you have been holding on to, like a grudge or resentment. What is it that Jesus is asking you to surrender?

D.O.V.S.: The Diocese of Ogdensburg Vocations Society

D.O.V.S is having our annual membership campaign. The annual campaign provides a major source of revenue for our organization and its success is vital to our Diocese. We, as a group, are dedicated to promoting and fostering vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Funds that we raise through our membership campaign helps us to raise awareness for vocations in our Diocese. If not a member, then why not be a patron. Annual dues are $50.00 per year or $75.00 per married couple. Any questions please call Connie Randall at 315-265-2762 or Anne Miller at 315-353-2950 or email Connie at connierandall47@yahoo.com

"The Rich Young Man" -Bishop Robert Barron

The Gospel story of the conversation between Jesus and the rich young man is one of St. John Paul II's favorites and is featured in many of his writings. The Pope sees three great moral themes in this narrative: the objectivity of the good, the indispensability of the commandments, and finally, the call to radical self-gift. The rich young man accepts the first two but balks at the third--and this is his tragedy. How radically are we willing to live the moral life? Will we follow Jesus, or walk away sad?

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The weekend of October 20-21 our diocesan family joins Catholics across the globe in celebrating World Mission Sunday. We join our sisters and brothers around the world who will gather at the Lord's Table to celebrate our common vocation as missionaries.

In his message for this year's celebration, Pope Francis tells us that "life is a mission" and he reminds us that "each one of us is called to reflect on this fact: I am a mission on this earth; that is the reason why I am here in this world." (Evangelii Gaudium, 273)

I invite all of us to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment to live out the mission we share as God's children, the mission to bring the Gospel to the whole world. I encourage you to be a "voice for mission" through your prayers and through the help that you are able to offer in support of the priests, deacons, consecrated religious and lay pastoral leaders who work tirelessly, proclaiming the Gospel, building the Church, and serving the poor in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe.

The prayers and material aid generously given to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday, the Pope tells us, continue to support the "preaching of the Gospel to every nation," thus "contributing to the human and cultural growth of all those who thirst for knowledge of the truth."

"Mission revitalizes faith," St. Pope John Paul II wrote in Redemptoris Missio (#2). May your commitment to the Lord's continuing mission renew your faith and be a blessing in your life. God bless you for responding generously to today's special appeal for the missions.

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg

Share Your Talents with Trinity Students

Trinity is very excited to introduce an enrichment program this year, and they are looking for YOUR help. They need adults who wish to share their talents with students from 3-6 grades. Some student suggestions are woodworking, jewelry-making, gardening, cooking/baking, art (focusing on special techniques, such as pottery, charcoal drawing, pastels, etc.), photography, creative writing, scrapbooking, knitting/crocheting, sewing, technology (such as coding), and chess. You may even have your own ideas to suggest. This program will consist of three 6-week sessions running in the fall, winter and spring, one day per week after school from approximately 3:15-4:45pm. If you are interested, please contact Candace O'Neill at 315-769-5911 or e-mail her at cathalumni@twcnny.rr.com as soon as possible. All volunteers who come in contact with TCS students must undergo a simple background check and receive training through the diocesan-wide Virtus program, which will be offered at Trinity at the end of September.
