Sunday, Jan. 27, 2019 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Neh 8:2-6, 8-10 / 1 cor 12:12-30 / Lk 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Today, this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing. Jesus is the fulfillment of the OT scriptures. He is the one who brings glad tidings to the poor, proclaims liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, lets the oppressed go free and proclaims an acceptable year to the Lord. This year, and every year, we celebrate another acceptable year to the Lord. We are baptized in Christ, incorporated in his body the Church. How do we live this scripture? How do we bring glad tidings to the poor? How has Jesus set us free to announce the Good News? Tell your story and share the Good News!

Planned Giving

Honoring Loved Ones Through Endowment Gifts

Establishing an endowment in the Foundation of the Diocese of Ogdensburg is a wonderful way to provide a lasting and meaningful gift in remembrance of a special person and at the same time support a purpose which that special person held dear. For more information, contact the Diocese at 315-393-2920 or Email slalone@rcdony.org

Environment Stewardship

As Catholics we know January as Pro-Life month. This month in the U. S. has also been designated as National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month. Did you know that some of the effects of change in climate, i.e. more frequent tornadoes, hurricanes, floods, rising sea levels, increase the number of people at risk of being for trafficked for sex or labor? In June 2014, the number of refugees worldwide exceeded 50 million children, women and men. Half of these refugees are children who get separated from their families during disasters. Source: "Human Trafficking and Environmental Refugees" Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking. Choosing one way to lower your carbon footprint like carpooling, combining trips etc. can have a ripple effect on reducing the causes of the change in climate. i.e. use less gasoline this week.
