As we enter into this Lenten season of penance and self-denial, we're reminded that the God we follow is no stranger to these things. In this Sunday's Gospel, we see the temptations of Jesus which have parallels throughout Scripture and in our own lives. The apostle John warns against temptations to sensual lust, enticement of the eyes, and a pretentious life (cf. 1 John 2:16). Before Eve plucks the fruit from the tree, she hears it is good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom (cf. Genesis 3:6). The temptations of Jesus are our own.

"Turn these stones to bread." Here is the lure of bodily comfort, like good food or sensual lust. It's the simplest of temptations because it's instinctual. We want good for our bodies! But there may be times these bodily goods don't serve the higher good for our souls. The leap "from the temple parapet" would entice the eye of the person watching. A feat like this would prove Jesus' Messianic ability. His popularity could be a shortcut to the cross. We might not be daredevils, but we want people to like us and be impressed by us. Do we sacrifice our values along the way? To "bow and worship" the devil and so claim power and a pretentious life seems like a dramatic temptation. Not everyone may feel enticed by power in the professional sense, but all of us want control. A volunteer team can feel just as intense as the boardroom! How often do we prefer to be in control of our lives (and perhaps even the lives of others), rather than allow God to be God?

When we consider areas of temptation and sin, it's not to feel ashamed. The temptation in the desert reminds us that we are not alone and that the strength of Jesus can be our strength, too.

Our Lord blesses us a hundredfold for our Stewardship Sacrifices. Thank you for your support of your parish.

Lent 2019 Keeping a Holy Lent

From Deacon Brian

After meetings with our parish trustees, finance ,pastoral councils and three open parish meetings which concluded last Monday night, I would have to say we are off to a good start in consolidation efforts. Conversations were solid, concerns were valid, but over all the support was obvious. The conversation doesn't conclude. You can reach me anytime by email, my cell phone to continue the conversations or email the parish office.

As we enter our first full week of Lent it's a great opportunity to come together and even better understand the sacrifice that Christ endured in the desert for forty days and nights, with God all is possible! So let us be refection's of God's love because as St. Paul writes: Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things endures all things, Love never fails!

It was great to see Father Tom celebrate the Ash Wednesday Mass at St. Francis. Father will ease back into ministry by taking a couple of daily masses a week and a weekend mass if all goes well.

Continue to pray for him and his continued healing. He has been extremely encouraged and humbled by the support of your prayers. Keep them up.

A Blessed week to all. Hope to see you at our parish Lenten opportunities.

St. Isaac Jogues Youth Conference

Please save July 12-14, 2019 for the St. Isaac Jogues Youth Conference (SIJYC) at the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs, Auriesville, NY. The schedule for 2019 will be posted on the website: www.joguesyouthconference.com/ along with more details and registration information. The SIJYC is a Catholic ministry for teens entering 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grades and includes teens in their graduating year and springs from the desire to offer a low-cost summer conference with the following goal: to bring teens a deeper sense of their personal relationship with Christ, to demonstrate how to translate that relationship to everyday life and how to continue to grow in their relationship with Christ after the conference ends.

Fishers Club: Priesthood Discernment

It's never too early to begin the conversation with your own Pastor or another trusted priest.

Planned Giving

Give Your House and Continue to Live There You may want to make a major gift to our parish. Why not consider real estate: This is called a life estate gift. This simply means that you give a piece of real estate, such as your residence, to our parish, obtain a charitable income tax deduction and retain the right to live there as long as you want. This arrangement removes the property from your estate and relieves your executor from having to dispose of your home at your death. Contact Scott Lalone at the Diocese at 315-393-2920 or Email slaone@rcdony.org for further information
