FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

The other day I came across an interesting anonymous article, entitled "Twelve Reasons Why A Pastor Quit Attending Sporting Events," which I would like to share with you.

1. The coach never came to visit me.
2. Every time I went, they asked for money.
3. The people sitting in my row didn't seem very friendly.
4. The seats were very hard.
5. The referees made a decision I didn't agree with.
6. I was sitting with hypocrites- they only came to see what others were wearing.
7. Some games went into overtime and I was late getting home.
8. The band played some songs I never heard before.
9. The games are scheduled on my only day to sleep in and run errands.
10. My parents took me to too many games when I was growing up.
11. Since I read the book on sports, I feel that I know more than the coaches anyway.
12. I don't want to take my children because I want them to choose for themselves what sport they like best.

Do any of these "reasons" sound familiar and apply to anyone you know?

Summer peace!
Monsignor Pedone

WOMEN'S GUILD

For years we had a Women's Guild here at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. It was extremely active. But, like so many other groups, their members, grew older and eventually it slowly ended. I spoke with Msgr. Pedone and he has given his ok to start the Guild up again in the fall. The Women's Guild with faith, prayer, knowledge and concern, helps build community through friendship, spiritual reflection, mutual support and support to those in need. Let us step up to the plate and make this happen once again as our grandmothers and mothers have done in the past. Our first meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 29 at 7:00 p.m.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who have joined us for the novena for Persecuted Christians and Religious Freedom for the last 9 days (August 1st through the 9th), whether it was for one day, several days or all nine days, it was a blessing to all of us! I know it was a sacrifice to attend, but God rewards us with great Graces to undergo the trials we may encounter!

During this novena, we have learned some of the specific horrible hardships and persecutions that hundreds of thousands of the Christians are experiencing throughout the world, especially in the Middle East! May God continue to give them strength and hope to hold steadfast to their faith! And, may we continue to pray for them, and to an end to this violence!

Thank you and may God continue to bless you!

BIBLE STUDY

Our Bible study will begin on September 30 at 1:00 p.m. . . and before we begin the prophet Isaiah, we shall read the work of a modern prophet, Pope Francis' Encyclical Letter, Laudato Si' - On Care for Our Common Home.

In the heart of this world, the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present. He does not abandon us, he does not leave us alone, for he has united himself definitively to our earth, and his love constantly impels us to find new ways forward. Praise be to him! Pope Francis, Laudato Si In his second encyclical, Laudato Si : On Care of Our Common Home, Pope Francis draws all Christians into a dialogue with every person on the planet about our common home. We as human beings are united by the concern for our planet, and every living thing that dwells on it, especially the poorest and most vulnerable. Pope Francis letter joins the body of the Church's social and moral teaching, draws on the best scientific research, providing the foundation for the ethical and spiritual itinerary that follows. Laudato Si outlines:

- The current state of our common home
- The Gospel message as seen through creation
- The human causes of the ecological crisis
- Ecology and the common good

Pope Francis' call to action for each of us

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Drink deeply from the cup of mystery

When the church speaks of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we speak of the whole Christ being “truly present, body, blood, soul, and divinity, under the appearances of bread and wine,” according to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. What it all means remains a mystery, but “God’s plan for the world has repeatedly surpassed human expectations and human understanding,” say the bishops. Those who follow Christ sow love where there is hate and see the light of the world amid the darkness. Don’t be afraid to take the surprising tack in the name of love.

TODAY’S READINGS: Proverbs 9:1-6; Ephesians 5:15-20; John 6:51-58 (119). “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.”

MONDAY, AUGUST 17

American idol

We bring our “Amen” to God on Sundays. Amen is our signature at the bottom of the contract of every prayer. But then we move on to serve other, lesser gods: anxiety about our finances or personal security, or maybe anger because so many elements of our lives are not entirely in our control. We may provide another “amen” to pride, envy, self-absorption. Creature comforts also present their contracts that beg for our signature. Practice reserving your Amen for the true God, and refuse to submit to the mini-gods.

TODAY’S READINGS: Judges 2:11-19; Matthew 19:16-22 (419). “The children of Israel . . . followed the other gods of the various nations around them.”

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18

I’m no hero!

Each saint in the canon, like every hero in the Bible, begins his or her vocation with an emphatic objection to God’s call. Which makes perfect sense to most of us, who would gladly echo Gideon’s response when summoned to be the next champion of his community. “I’m no savior! Try next door.” It’s not false modesty on our part. We know our limitations too well, so it helps to keep this in mind: So does God. When God comes calling, with the invitation always comes the grace to fulfill it.

TODAY’S READINGS: Judges 6:11-24a; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). “But Gideon answered him, ‘Please, my lord, how can I save Israel?’”

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 19

FEAST OF JOHN EUDES, PRIEST

Stand out from the field

Priest John Eudes lived in a time of plagues, but rather than flee after being bedridden for a year, he stayed close at hand to care for those in his diocese who were stricken. He avoided infecting his colleagues by living out in a middle of a field. Though your own efforts to help others might not seem so heroic, no small kindness is wasted, no moment of compassion insignificant. It all counts. You don’t have to live in a field to be of service. Find your own way to alleviate some suffering today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Judges 9:6-15; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). “My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go.”

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20

FEAST OF BERNARD, ABBOT, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Spend time with the living Word

Bernard of Clairvaux was a great reformer of monastic life, and his vision was grounded in a deep interior spirituality. He championed lectio divina (Latin for “divine reading”), a traditional practice of scripture reading, reflection, and prayer that treats the scripture not as a text to be studied but a living Presence to be encountered. Whatever your own profession or activity—from homemaking to company building, from repairing roofs to repairing hearts—you can benefit from taking a few minutes early or late in the day to sit with a passage of scripture and allow it to come alive in your mind and heart. Start with today’s gospel if you wish.

TODAY’S READINGS: Judges 11:29-39a; Matthew 22:1-14 (422). “Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.”

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21

FEAST OF PIUS X, POPE

The pauper pope

“I was born poor, I have lived poor, and I wish to die poor.” Not the words you might expect from a pope, but they are indeed the words of Pius X, who led the church a hundred years ago. He was known as a stiff disciplinarian but is said to have tempered that quality with compassion, perhaps born out of his own challenged background. Rules have their place, but compassion is always called for. If you are in a position of authority take Pius as your model. Be a compassionate leader.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ruth 1:1, 3-6, 14b-16, 22; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

SATURDAY, AUGUST 22

FEAST OF THE QUEENSHIP OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Leading by serving

Jesus has a way of turning things upside down so that we can learn something new about God. When Jesus speaks of leadership, for example, he invites us not to consider leaders in title only, but leaders who are truly at the service of others, those who lead by walking with people, not above them. In celebrating the Queenship of Mary, let us consider how Mary has been a leader by her life, her words, and her actions. In what way does Mary continue to walk with you on your journey?

TODAY’S READINGS: Ruth 2:1-3, 8-11; 4:13-17; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). “The greatest among you must be your servant.”
