Pastor's Corner

This weekend we celebrate the great feast of All Saints. My Celtic ancestors gave us Halloween of course and I have nothing against all the spooky customs and costumes. However, we might remember that the idea was that because of the sacredness of the eve of All Hallows, the evil in the world reacted horribly and still does, at the very thought of holiness. Dressing up as witches etc. was a primitive attempt to frighten off the evil spirits that roamed the world.

However, the goodness of the saints, mortals like ourselves who achieved sanctity, is what we should be celebrating and these great men and women should be our role models. Today the number of those officially recognized as saints is around 7,000 but I am sure that there are many others, whom we might have encountered in our lives, that could be added to that number. The saints give us heroic examples of having faithfully followed Christ. We ask our friends and family to pray for us, why not ask them? God bless you all.

Stewardship Reflection

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. Most of us are aware that every day of the year is Feast Day for some saints. In fact, and this is of great consequence to our understanding, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia "The Solemnity of All Saints is when the Church honors all saints, known and unknown."

This is a day which should remind us that we, too, are called to sainthood. Not that we aspire to be honored publicly by the Pope or by the Church, but we do need to recognize that each of us is called to holiness. It is those unknown saints who provide examples of how to live and love and treat others, how to be good stewards. May we pray for them and may we seek to be like them in our own lives!

Respect Life: Have you heard of the Spiritual Adoption Prayer? The late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen encouraged the spiritual adoption of a pre-born child. This is done by praying that one particular, but unknown child's life, be spared abortion. It was recommended an individual say the following daily prayer for a period of one year. "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the pre-born baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." During your earthly life this spiritually adopted child of yours will be known only to God, but in the world to come it is hoped that you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers.
