Pastor's Corner

Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." As we hear in Holy Scripture, today is the day that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus' followers, and with that Jesus' mission on earth was completed.

Jesus describes the Holy Spirit as the Advocate sent to help us and to plead our cause. We may not consider ourselves worthy of such an advocacy. God, however, overlooks our unworthiness and lifts us into the amazing truth of our being loved.

The Holy Spirit, with His many gifts, helps us to see how our individual gifts come together for the good of all. When Jesus spoke these words, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." That includes each and every one of us. We, too, are sent. Many times we have reiterated that being sent means that we live out our Catholic faith in everything we do. That is the best way to evangelize, to let those around us know what it means to be a Catholic Christian and a follower of Christ and His disciples.

Stewardship Reflection

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops made the following statement about what it means to evangelize: Here, there are two elements of evangelization at work: 1. Witness, which is the simple living out of the faith; 2. Sharing, which is spreading the Good News of Jesus. Do we follow the admonitions given us by the Lord? Are we examples of what it means to be a Catholic and Christian? Do we truly share the Good News? Are we good stewards?

Other Opportunities Around The Area

Communion Ministry to the Sick: Receiving the Eucharist, especially when a person is ill, brings a beautiful sense of hope and comfort. The Mayo Clinic Chaplain Services are looking for people to commit themselves to be Eucharistic Ministers once per month for about two hours each time. If you are interested, please contact Fr. John Evans at evans.john@mayo.edu

Catholic Brunch at St. James Coffee: Meet other Young Adults from all over the Rochester at our city wide brunch on Sunday, June 3 from noon to 1:30pm at St. James Coffee. Brunch is free. Download or print the coupon from stjamescoffee.com for a free drink. Invite your friends, and hope to see you there!

A Green Pilgrimage at Assisi Heights: June 4, 6:30-7:30pm $10 prepaid. $15 day of program. The natural beauty of Assisi Heights is dressed up. Now is the opportune time for an environmental pilgrimage-on-foot strolling through the Temple of Nature. Sister Marlys Jax will give an overview of the years of various environmental practices at Assisi Heights. Wear comfortable shoes and bring a walking stick if you so desire.
