This is a volunteer position; teacher guide and student text are provided as well as Catechical training. Please pray about this and if moved by the Holy Spirit contact Theresa Sopocy at 862-5909.

On Saturday, June 11 at 7 pm and Sunday, June 12th at 2 pm at the Strand Theater, 217 E. Superior St., Alma. In spite of a less than perfect home life, this student, jokester, political activist, servant of the poor lived a life of amazing heroism. Come laugh, cry and be touched by this true story. There will be a special guest appearance by Fr. Nate Harburg, parochial administrator of Nativity of the Lord Parish, Alma. Free will offerings will be accepted. Details are available at: www.frassatidetroit.org or by calling 989-463-5370.

Mass for Freedom: Wednesday, June 29th at 6:30 pm at Holy Family Church, 1525 S Washington Ave., Saginaw. This Mass with Bishop Cistone is part of the Fortnight for Freedom, which takes place each year from June 29 to July 4. This is a time of year when the liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political powers. These martyrs include St. Thomas More, St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul, and the first martyrs of the Church of Rome. All are welcome.

A Reflection on the Gospel from 2016 Living

Liturgy: The widow of Nain had lost everything dear to her: her husband and her only son. By losing her husband, she had lost her life support; at that time most women were totally dependent upon their husbands for livelihood. She had a son, and he no doubt supported her after his father’s death. Then he dies and any hope of posterity ceases. She is utterly alone; she is now the last in her ancestral line. The widow and a “large crowd from the city” were processing to bury her son. Without even being asked, Jesus with great compassion comforts her, touches the son’s coffin, raises her son from the dead, and gives him back to his mother. By word and deed Jesus restores the widow’s life and hope. She is no longer alone in this world without support and hope of posterity.

In Jesus “God has visited his people.” He brings gifts that are only God’s to give: life and hope. No wonder news of Jesus’ words and deeds spread rapidly! In him something new is happening. Death is not an end, but a sign of God’s power and saving grace. In Jesus God continues to visit us, offering hope and life, even without our asking. Do we accept?
