REFLECTION
Fifth Sunday of Lent
Isaiah 43:16-21 Psalm 126
Philippians 3:8-14 John 8:1-11

GOD’S ACTIONS NOW
When Jews celebrate the Passover, they always tell the story of the Exodus in present terms, as if they themselves experienced those events: when we were prisoners in Egypt; when God brought us out of slavery and through the waters of the sea. We would do well to follow their example and see the works of Jesus and his sacrifice as being in the present, as happening to us now. We believe that Christ’s work, his teachings, and his sacrifice on the cross were not just for his followers in the past, but for all people at all times. When we think of this in our prayers, we become one in faith with that great cloud of witnesses, the saints.

We have been striving through Lent to repent of our sins and failings, and to follow Jesus more closely. Today in the story of the woman caught in adultery, we see Jesus forgiving the woman, saving her from a horrible death, and urging her not to sin any more. This is new, and brings out something for which the law had not allowed—forgiveness. Of course one can sin no more if one is dead, caught in one’s sins forever. But Jesus introduces the concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation.

“The Lenten Sketches” by Joseph M. Martin
Two Performances this year!
• Saturday, April 6, at 6:30 p.m.
• Sunday, April 7, at 2:00 p.m.

The St. Francis of Assisi Choir presents “The Lenten Sketches”
A Lenten Tenebrae Service offered in Song and Narrative

Inspired by the life and message of Jesus Christ, artists in every medium have endeavored to capture the magnificence of His ministry among us. From poets and painters to singers and sculptors, the human spirit has long labored to convey through artistic expression the deep, deep things of faith. So vast is this great mystery that no canvas can capture it and no song can fully express its beauty and emotion.

“The Lenten Sketches” allows us to gather together to reflect and pray that our art may be redeemed by divine purpose. ...music motivated by the spirit of worship, in reflection of the beautiful portrait of His grace, our Master Composer and Artist.

These beautiful, prayerful services are free-of-charge to all.

CHRISM MASS
APRIL 11, 2019
5:30 p.m.
ST. ROSE OF LIMA PARISH
100 BISHOP MANOGUE DR

Please join Bishop Randolph Calvo as he blesses and consecrates the chrism oil that is used for Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders and Anointing of the Sick during the upcoming year. After it is blessed, the oil is distributed and used at all the churches and hospitals of the diocese. The priests of the diocese participate by renewing the promises they made on their ordination day. It includes their call to serve the people of God faithfully, the call to be men of prayer and the call to be faithful to one’s bishop.
That is a powerful moment in the life of the priest and also for the lay faithful who are called to renew their own commitment and prayers for the priests.
Please come and enjoy this Mass – EVERYONE is welcome.
