Consider This for LentConfession: It puts you straight with everyone

Penance, aka confession, is the sacrament of the forgiveness of sin. You can't beat it for convenience. It's available practically whenever. Tell a priest you want to go to confession and you'll get his attention.

Confession has benefits. Here are ten:

1. Confidentiality guaranteed. There's nothing like confessing your sins to someone guaranteed not to tell anyone else. Sometimes you need to talk in absolute confidence. Even under subpoena, a priest can't tell anyone what's said to him in confession. He can't even hint at it. Now that's confidentiality.

2. Housekeeping for the soul. It feels good to be able to start a clean life all over again. Like going into a sparkling living room in your home, it's nice when clutter is removed – even if it's your own.

3. A balm for the desire for revenge. When you have been forgiven you can forgive others. If the perfect Jesus forgives me, who am I to want to avenge the slights in my life. Think: "Why did they promote him over me?" or "Mom played favorites!"

4. Low cost therapy. It's free, which makes it cheaper than a psychiatrist for dealing with guilt.

5. Forced time to think. Socrates said that the unexamined life is not worth living. To examine our lives and acknowledge failings marks the first step of making things right with God, others, and ourselves. Life can be more worth living when you ponder the meaning of your own life.

6. Contribution toward world peace. Gaudium et Spes, the Second Vatican Council's Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, said that the imbalances in the world that lead to war and tensions "are linked with that more basic imbalance which is rooted in the heart of man." Peace of soul leads to peace of heart leads to peace beyond oneself.

7. A better neighborhood. Confession leaves you feeling good about yourself, thereby cutting back the inclination to road rage and aggressive shopping cart driving. With the grace of the sacrament you're energized to, as Jesus said to the woman caught in adultery, "go and sin no more."

8. Realistic self-perception. Confession helps overcome arrogance when you have to admit you're as much of a sinner as anyone else. It helps build tolerance for others' perceived shortcomings.

9. One more benefit of being Catholic. There are lots of benefits, including a sense of community, liturgical rites to help us encounter God in prayer, and the wonderful sense of humanity exemplified in the saints, from Mary, the loving Mother of God, to Augustine, the exasperating son of Monica. The sacrament that leads us to inner peace is among the greatest boons.

10. Closeness to God. Confession helps you realize that you have a close connection to God and receive his grace through the sacraments. What can be better than knowing God's on your team, or, to be less arrogant about it, that you are on God's.

The Art of Conversation

When I was young, my family and I would often go visiting. Some Sundays we would go to my Mom's parents in Minneapolis not far from Hiawatha Falls. The house and yard were small, but there was a true sense of family as we went for a meal. My aunts, uncles, and cousins would be there. We would tell adults and children alike what was going on in our lives. Some Sundays we would go to my Dad's parents on the farm in Lakeville. There was a lot of space in a house that raised eleven with a big yard and many fields. There too we would talk to our relatives. How I enjoyed those many conversations.

Now we have "instant" conversations. Text, Facebook, Twitter, and email let us know about each other. We find out about people and what they are doing, but do we really talk? I meet more and more young people who have a difficult time conversing. Their parents and grandparents let me know often this latest generation has a tough time talking in person. I talked to a young woman who gave up Facebook on her phone for Lent. I was so happy she was doing it and I pray she does well. It seems we are so connected electronically that we have forgotten how to both speak and even more important to listen. Is the art of conversation dead?

There is One who will always converse with us. No matter what time of day it is, he is ready. The weather could be horrible and we could still count on him. He wants to hear every detail of our lives. He longs to speak to us in the silence of our hearts. We will probably not hear him audibly, but that doesn't mean he isn't there. We may not be used to being quiet, staying in the moment even when there isn't something to distract us, but he has an awesome amount of patience for us. He is God. Learn about conversing with him Tues., March 21st at 6:30 pm at the parish house east and a little south of St. John's Church. I hope to see you then!

What is a Teen Mass?

It is a Mass that is geared for young people and is fully ministered by teens. The teens can serve as Lectors/Readers, Eucharistic Ministers (those confirmed), Ushers, et cetera! Teen Masses focus primarily on issues facing young people in relation to the day's Gospel reading. Oftentimes this viewpoint opens up complex concepts in exciting ways! Come experience our next Teen Mass on Sun., March 19th at 6 pm. All are welcome!

St. Wenceslaus Adult Discussion Group

For Lent, the Adult Discussion Group will meet at 6 pm at the Parish House every Sunday through and including April 9th. The topic is "The Gospel of Matthew". As always, reading the material in advance is not necessary to attend and participate. ALL ARE WELCOME! Bring your Bible; bring a friend. If anyone has any questions, please give Dave or Susan Karan a call at (952) 461-3067.

SW Council of Catholic Women Meeting

We will be showcasing different quilts. The Mission Sewing Ladies will demonstrate what they use and how they put quilts together. If this interests you, please consider coming to our meeting on Mon., March 20th in the church dining hall. Call Marion at 758-8633 if you have any questions or want to help out.

Living in the Church

Why do disciples need the Church? We will explore the importance of the faith community and the ways we experience our relationship with Jesus in community and sacrament. This is the third in the series, "Living as a Disciple." Tues., March 21st, 6:30-8 pm, PAC chapel.

Men's Group

The Men's Group will be meeting at the Parish House of St. Wenceslaus on Thurs., March 23rd at 7 pm. All adult male parishioners of St. Wenceslaus and the Western Catholic Community are invited. No advance reading is necessary but, if possible, please bring a Bible. Invite a friend. If you are interested in participating in the group but cannot make the meeting or have any questions, please call David Karan at (952) 461-3067.

Lenten Women's Reprieve

Join us for a Lenten Women's Reprieve Sun, March 26th, at 7 pm in the St. Wenceslaus Chapel. Breath is crucial to our existence. When it is present, it comes with hope, opportunity, and potential. When that breath is the very breath of God, something even greater happens. Come realize the power of your existence.

Want to See DC?

Here's your chance! Plans are now being made to take a group from the parish to see our nation's capital August 9-12, 2017. There will be an informational meeting on Mon., March 27th at 7 pm in the church basement. The group will be led by Jamie Schoenbauer and Becky Zwirner.

Bridging the Red/Blue Divide

Lenten Prayer

God of all people,
You walk with us on our life's journey.
You know our joys and struggles.
You know us better than we know ourselves.

This Lenten season, may we too learn to walk with others. Through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, may we encounter you in our neighbors in need and live your call to serve our human family. Amen.
