

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 8, 2017

Following Jesus: Invitation to Discipleship

Jesus said to his disciples...

No disciple is superior to the teacher;
but when fully trained, every disciple
will be like the teacher.

Luke 6: 39a,40

How are we doing? We're all in training.

What do we do? Pray to be open in mind and heart to the one who loved us first, that one being Jesus Christ.

A Note About Children's Liturgy of the Word*LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN

Liturgy of the Word for children (ages 4-12) takes place on Sunday mornings during the 8:30 and 10:30 Masses during the school year. After a dismissal by Father, we gather in the chapel and begin with prayer. Modified versions of the Sunday Readings are used to aid and enrich the children's understanding of the Word. Just as our bodies need food to grow, frequent reading of scripture reveals more and more meaning and helps children to open their hearts and grow in their faith.

After the Readings, we have time for reflection and discussion. The children have an opportunity to ask questions and talk about what God is saying to them. What did we hear as the Gospel was being read? What message does God have for us and how does that apply to us at this stage in our life?

After the reflection, we pray the Creed and Prayers of the Faithful. With time permitting, there is an activity which reiterates the Gospel message or teaches Catholic Traditions, Prayers, or Saints which correlate with the liturgical season. We then proceed back up to church to join in with the community to celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Parents are always welcome to attend with their children and we're always looking for volunteers to help. One of the best ways to grow in your faith is to teach!

From the Desk of Father Dave

Be a Pro at Pro Life

When I was in Junior college, I took a class in microbiology. Something about making slides and using a microscope to see life in a very basic form got me excited. Catholics see all life as important, and in human life we believe there is a touch of the divine. As a result, we acknowledge the sacredness of human life from conception to natural death.

We are strongly opposed to any abortion. Even though certain pregnancies are hard, we still believe in the miracle that occurs at conception. In the case of the pregnancy being fatal to the mother, there must be an open dialogue in what to do about this rare and troubling diagnosis. I have worked with adoptive couples and believe there would be homes for all children. When an abortion happens, three lives are damaged. The child loses his or her very life. The mother may experience problems physically, mentally, and spiritually. Sometimes this trauma doesn't manifest until years later. Fortunately, there are services available for women who suffer in this way. It is coming to light that men also suffer from trauma because of regret, shame, or loss of dreams. All need to be treated with compassion.

For Catholics, our pro-life stance extends to many issues. Caring for the poor is a pro-life issue. So is our stand against capital punishment. We believe in reconciliation and forgiveness for all. We should pay for our crimes, but there should also be a mercy extended to all life. The end of life is very sacred as well. People should be able to be with their loved ones to the end. We can make an individual comfortable in the dying process, but euthanasia is forbidden.

At this weekend's 10 am Mass at St. John, we are having a pro-life procession. All stages of life will be recognized. The 4th Degree Knights of Columbus will escort the procession. The sponsor and organizer of this event is the Our Lady of Good Help Council of Catholic Women. Even if you are unable to join us, join me in prayer that those who observe may be moved to be a pro at pro-life.
