November 26th

Faith Baptist (Fl.) 58 MHEA (Tn.) 55

Faith Baptist, after trailing the entire game, put together a 25-18 4th quarter run to snatch victory from defeat. Faith Baptist was led by Senior Rickeya Williams 24 points. MHEA was led by 8th grade 5-11 Emily Lytle 16 points, Sophomore Sara Lytle 13 and Freshman Torri Lewis with 10.

15 Riverdale (Tn.) 48 #6 Hoover (Ala.) 37

In a battle of FAB 50 teams, Riverdale's used its full court press to jump out to an 18-5 1st quarter lead which proved just enough to stave off a couple of Hoover rallies. Hoover outscored Riverdale 32-30 over the final three quarters. Riverdale's press forced Hoover into double digit turnovers. Riverdale was led by Georgia signee 6-0 Shacobia Barbee's 17 points, Tyisha Petty 13, and Alexa Middleton 10. Hoover was led by UAB signee 6-1 Kayla Anderson with 10.

8 Bollingbrook (Il.) 50 #14 Twinsburg (Oh.) 47

Bollingbrook in its second battle versus a FAB 50 opponent outlasted a very determined Twinsburg squad. This contest pitted UConn signee Morgan Tuck, fresh off a 40 point performance against #15 Riverdale, and Maryland signee Malina Howard with 20 points versus #11 Memphis Central (Tn.) in an overtime defeat. The teams' swapped leads several time before Tuck sealed the victory with free throws down the stretch. Tuck led all scorers with 24 points. Twinsburg was led by Junior point guard Ashley Morrisette 19 points, Leah Fechko 13 and Howard, plagued with foul trouble from guarding Tuck, finished with 10 before fouling out.

Knoxville Webb (Tn.) 69 Stone Mountain (Ga.) 35

Knoxville Webb, after playing even with Stone Mountain 18-18 after the 1st quarter, went on a 20-7 run in the 2nd quarter and never looked back in route to 34 point victory. Webb was led by Katie Collier 15 points, and Kelley Vittetoe added 11. Stone Mountain was led by Danielle Clarks 14 points and Shelita Holmes with 10.

Clyde C Miller (Mo.) 56 Jackson County (Tn.) 54

In one of many highly contested games at the Tennessee Turkey Jamm CC Miller pulled out the "W" against a very game Jackson County team. CC Miller was led by Super Sophomore Braennan Farrar. Farrar is a dynamic point guard with a complete game.

Overton (Tn.) 52 East Central (Ok.) 49

Overton was led by Tennessee-Martin signee Cortice Golden 15 points and Phiecia Atkins 11. East Central was led by Senior Bria Pitts with 20.

#25 North Little Rock (Ar.) 67 #39 Incarnate Word Academy (Mo) 62

North Little Rock prevailed in this overtime thriller of FAB 50 opponents. NLR was led by Arkansas State signee 5-11 Xena King 19 points with 4 3pters, SMU signee 6-1 Lexus Williams 18 and Arkansas State signee 5-7 Sandy Jackson 13. Incarnate Word was led by Sophomore Nakiah Bell 16, Purdue 6-3 signee Taylor Manuel 16 and McKenna Treece 10.

13 McEachern (Ga.) 64 #11 Memphis Central (Tn.) 61

Pachiyanna Roberts' long buzzer-beater powers No. 13 McEachern

Pachiyanna Roberts hit a 60-foot shot at the buzzer Saturday night to help No. 13 McEachern (Power Springs, Ga.) to a 64-61 victory over No. 11 Memphis (Tenn.) Central at the Turkey Jamm in Memphis, Tenn.

The 6-foot-1 forward, a Syracuse signee, finished with 42 points.

"I had no idea it was going in until it got to the rim," Roberts said of her shot. "And (42) I didn't even know I had that many. We needed points in a bad way. I just wanted to help my team."

McEachern, which beat Overton (Memphis, Tenn.) in its opening game of the Turkey Jamm, improved to 4-0. This victory gives McEachern its second victory over a FAB 50 team the other being No. 32 Norcross (Ga.).

Memphis Central won its first game of the tournament, 64-61, over No. 14 Twinsburg (Ohio) on Friday night.
