

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

On this first Sunday after our Christmas Season is completed, I do want to say a big “thank you” to all who had a part in making our Advent – Christmas Season so marvelous. Our Parish Staff worked very hard these past six weeks making sure everything went well. I am grateful to Msgr. Metrejean, Fr. Leger, Fr. Ruffinus and Fr. Ledoux for their help. The choirs were amazing and the music was so beautiful and so prayerful. The volunteers who came to decorate the rectory and the Church, and then un-decorate the rectory and the Church were so generous with their time, and in record time. The Ladies Altar Society went beyond expectation with their help. The KC gift of the book, Confessions of A Mega-Church Pastor by Allen Hunt was so well received. The donors for all the beautiful poinsettias were exceptionally generous this year. Durio’s Flower Shop always is so generous and helpful.

As you know, I was a little worried that in December we would be losing 2 Sunday collections because the holidays fell on Sunday. And two Sundays before Christmas I asked you to look back at your total gift in December of 2015 and do the same this December 2016. I thank you. Our one Christmas collection in 2016 was more than Christmas and the Sunday after Christmas put together in 2015. I was so touched.

I am now going to plead. We have many volunteers and they are amazing but we need more. We need more ushers, especially at the Sunday 5:15 pm Mass. We need more adorers in the Chapel, mostly in the afternoon hours. Please, please step up to the plate.

We have a good break before Lent is upon us. Enjoy this Ordinary Time by making it an extraordinary time of praying more and loving and serving one another. I love you!

With reliance upon Our Lady Queen of Angels, I remain
In the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Keith J. DeRouen
Pastor
