

OUR LADY QUEEN OF ANGELS
KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #11270
APRIL 2017 NEWSLETTER

Council 11270 held a meeting on February 1. Grand Knight reported that he and several brothers attended the annual Walk for Life on January 14. Brent Prather and Brother Knight John Miller and his wife, Jeri, were commended for their 30 years of organizing the Walk.

Because March 1 was Ash Wednesday, the March meeting was moved to Thursday, March 2. Several field agents from the area were present to explain the insurance, annuity, and other benefits available to all Knights. Members brought their wives, and one non-member was in attendance. The weekend prior to the meeting, Grand Knight Bruce Gaudin was Field Agent Derek Faust were allowed to speak at each Mass to invite prospective members to attend the March meeting.

Any practicing Catholic man over the age of 18 who is interested in joining the Knights can contact the Grand Knight or any Brother Knight. The council currently has 99 members.

The Council met again on April 5. Two new members were proposed. A letter from Peter Lemoine was read to the members concerning anti-abortion videos being produced by him and a group of concerned Knights.

Plans were made to cook hamburgers and hot dogs for the Queen of Angels Family Fun Day on April 9.

The next meeting is May 3. Nominations for officers will be accepted at this time.
