St. John Cassian

Eastern monk and theological writer. He went to Palestine in 380 with a companion, Germanus, and became a monk in Egypt. In 400 he entered into the discipleship of St. John Chrysostom, going to Rome to defend the much-oppressed saint before Pope Innocent I. Ordained in Rome, John started monasteries in southern France, near Marseilles, thus helping to pioneer monasticism in Europe. His two main writings, Institutes of the Monastic Life and Conferences on the Egyptian Monks, were much praised by St. Benedict and were long influential; the former had a direct impact upon Benedict during the time that he was composing his famed Rule. John also authored the work De Incarnatione Domini, in seven books, at the behest of Pope Leo I the Great so as to inform the Western Church of the details of the teachings of the heresiarch Nestorius. While never canonized officially in the West, John has long been considered a saint among the Eastern Churches.-

If you know of anyone interest in teaching, please encourage them to join us, we need more teachers. We need subs and ideally 3 teachers to a class so you can rotate. We would like any interested parents to come also.

Father would like you to share your thoughts on the teaching curriculum your class used this past year so he can evaluate your needs when ordering for this year.

Also bring any ideas for next year's activities. We will also discuss the planned events, caroling, Pie Fest Food Booth, Christmas Parade, Annual Fund raising for the High School Youth.

We plan on this being a short meeting, afterwards, if light, we can go on a trip to the new One Church property for anyone interested.
