Pensamientos de una catequista:

En la temporada de Cuaresma, es tan importante para nosotros tener tradiciones como familia. Si no tienes algo que hagas durante la semana juntos, ¡no es demasiado tarde para empezar! Renuncia a algo o comienza algo nuevo para unirte al sacrificio de Jesús durante este tiempo de preparación como familia.

Aquí hay 3 ideas fáciles para elegir (o para lograr que sus propias ideas fluyan): 1) No compres nada que no necesites. Cuando usted o sus hijos tengan la tentación de hacerlo, ¡dónen ese dinero a su cajita de arroz de Cuaresma! 2) No comas nada después de la cena. Incluso en los días en que no estamos ayunando, podemos imaginarnos cómo Jesús debió haber luchado cuando tenía hambre. 3) Comprométase a decir 3 cosas agradables a cada miembro de su familia cada día de Cuaresma. "Nadie ha visto a Dios, pero si nos amamos unos a otros, Dios mora en nosotros y su amor es llevado a la perfección en nosotros". 1 Juan 4:12

“Este hermano tuyo estaba muerto y ha revivido; estaba perdido y lo hemos encontrado”

Thoughts from a catechist:

In the season of Lent, it is so important for us to have traditions as a family. If you don't have something you do during the week together, it's not too late to start! Give something up or take on something new to unite to Jesus' sacrifice during this time of preparation together.

Here are 3 easy ideas to choose from (or to get your own ideas flowing):

- 1) Don't buy anything you don't NEED. When you or your children are tempted to, donate that money instead to your Lenten rice bowl!
- 2) Don't eat anything after dinner. Even on days when we are not fasting, we can have glimpse into how Jesus must have struggled when he was hungry.
- 3) Make a commitment to say 3 nice things to each member of your family each day of Lent. "No one has ever seen God but if we love one another, God dwells in us and His love is brought to perfection in us." 1 John 4:12
