Thank you.
Your ongoing support is essential in helping us meet the many needs of our parish and community.

The phrase in today's psalm, "May you see your children's children," is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives!"

*Let the children come to me;
do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.*
— Mark 10:14

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of our great treasures is the way the Church has frequently flourished under unfavorable conditions, like the grape ivy on the mantel that refuses to die no matter how infrequently you water it or open the drapes. Like the apartheid laws in South Africa in the last century, the penal laws of Ireland were aimed at depriving the majority population of basic human rights. The Protestant parliament of Ireland enacted laws limiting the practice of Catholicism. The goal was to force conversion from "popery" to the Church of Ireland, and additional laws took aim at Jews, non-Anglicans, and Quakers.

There were laws against intermarriage, laws against Catholics being lawyers (there was a one-hundred-pound fine), a law granting lifelong income to priests who became Protestant, and a ban on weapons. In fact, until 1793, a Catholic man had to recruit and pay a Protestant man to serve in the local militia in his place! As if family life is not complicated enough in any age, the sons of a deceased father could divide his land equally, unless one became Protestant. In that case all would go to him! When allowed, new Catholic churches had to be built of wood, not stone, be off a main road or city square, have no steeple or bell, and be called a "chapel." Catholic "Emancipation" was largely secured by 1829, but even up to the founding of the Irish State in the 1920s, some effects of the laws endured. No wonder that poor Irish immigrants to the United States frequently built gloriously beautiful churches as their first act on free soil!

The Knights of Columbus are holding their annual Intellectual Disability Drive on Sunday October 7th and Sunday October 14th, to help people with intellectual disabilities. In the 30+ years, the Columbian Foundation has raised over 19 million dollars for organizations serving people with intellectual disabilities.

They help people go to summer camps, receive education in residential care facilities, look for mainstream employment, and support Special Olympics regardless of race, color, or gender.

The Knights of Columbus, St. Basil council has raised monies to help local organizations such as Camp Recreation, St. Vincent Church, and Special Olympics in 10 + years. Last year, St. Basil raised over 300 dollars to help Camp Recreation and St. Vincent.

The Knights, with the help of St. Basil students, will be wearing yellow aprons with yellow canisters and will be in the Monsignor Byrnes Room, church parking lot, and outside church doors after the 7:30, 9:30, and 11:30 masses. Every dime, quarter, and dollar will be deeply appreciated. It will help our local organizations serving people with intellectual

Spiritual Commitment -

There will be commissioning of ALL Ministry Volunteers on Sunday, October 21 at 11:30am Mass or Saturday, October 27 at 5:30pm. All Ministry members are asked to be present during the commissioning.

We remember the words of St. Paul,
"If one member suffers, all suffer together with it."

PRAYER

God of endless love, ever caring, ever strong, always present, always just:
You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of his cross. Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.
Hear our cries as we agonize over the harm done to our brothers and sisters. Breathe wisdom into our prayers, soothe the restless hearts with hope, steady shaken spirits with faith:
Show us the way to justice and wholeness, enlightened by truth and enfolded in your mercy. Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform our brokenness.
Grant us courage and wisdom, humility, and grace, so that we may act with justice and find peace in you.
St. Charles Lwanga and St. Monica, pray for the abused, the survivors, and for justice to be done.
St. Peter, pray for the Church, that it may be rebuilt, healed, and made holy.
St. Catherine of Siena, pray for reform and restoration of the clergy.
St. John Vianney, pray for the holiness of priests and bishops.
St. Paul, pray for the bishops that they may be fearless in confronting wrongdoing.
St. Augustine, pray for true repentance and transparency.
St. Benedict, pray that this evil be cast out of the Church.
St. Anthony, pray for us to find the way forward.
Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us!
