WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

We would like to extend a warm welcome this week to these new parishioners at St. Timothy: James and Lauren Angelo; Stephen and Kathleen Brincko; MaryEllen Mineo; Martin and Christine Miranda; Chong Monica Mooney; Ronald Osburn; and Terry Scott

OUR FATHER . . . (MATTHEW 6:9)

Has there ever been a more powerful or important prayer than the Our Father, the prayer that Jesus himself taught us to say? Yet how easy it can be for this prayer to become just another part of our routine! Let's take a little time right now and meditate on the Our Father, letting the teachings of St. Augustine help us find new life in a very familiar prayer.

"When we pray Hallowed be thy name, we are counseling ourselves to desire that his name, which is always holy, may be held holy among all people. That is, we are praying that his name not be treated with disdain or contempt.

"When we pray, Thy kingdom come, which will certainly come whether we want it to or not, we can stir our desire for that kingdom. We can ask that it may come for us personally, and that when it comes we will be worthy to reign with God in his kingdom.

"When we pray, Give us this day our daily bread, we mean right now, this present moment. "Bread" can signify whatever will be sufficient for us live today. But it can also refer to the sacrament of the Eucharist, now that helps us obtain everlasting happiness.

"When we pray, Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, we are advising ourselves both as to what we should ask for, and what we should do to be worthy to receive it.

"When we pray, Lead us not into temptation, we are encouraging ourselves to look to God for his help so that we don't find ourselves left to our own inadequate defenses. How easy it is to give in to temptation through self-deception or self-pity!

"Finally, when we pray, Deliver us from evil, we can bring ourselves to reflect on the fact that we are not yet in that blessed condition where we will be free of all evil. This last petition in the Lord's prayer has such a wide scope, in fact, that a Cristian in any trouble can use it to help them deal with whatever pains them or causes them tears. We can even pray it first, or at length, or at the end of our intentions."

-Adapted from St. Augustine's Letter to Proba.

"Come, Lord Jesus, and establish your kingdom in my heart today."

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

Fr. Ed

OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL 2017

WE MUST BUILD OUR LIVES ON THE ESSENTIALS . . .

This is the first report for Our Catholic Appeal for 2017. The information reflects the 02/24/2017 report of pledges as prepared by the Catholic Foundation of Central Florida.

- 2017 Goal for Our Catholic Appeal is $528,449.
- To date, 273 of our 4642 families (5.8%) pledged $87,698.01 (16.6% of Goal).

Fr. Ed has not set any participation goal for this year. However, his wish is that a great majority of parishioners will participate as their means allow.

We ask St. Faustina to intercede in the fruition of this goal.

Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan!" - Mt 4:8-10

The trip includes the Red Mass with all the bishops that honors those in legal professions (judges, lawyers, legislators, etc.). This year's trip includes a visit to the site of the Florida martyrs in Apalachee. Last year's group from St. Timothy parishioners said it was an excellent and eye opening experience. This is a contemporary Station of the Cross with a simple theme -- Jesus' Way of the Cross is Our Way of the Cross. Through participation of several people we enter more deeply into Christ's Passion and how we experience this in our lives today. This is an awe inspiring way to enlighten us on our Lenten journey.

THE FAMILY, PEACE, NONVIOLENCE
POPE FRANCIS, SHEPHERD OF TRUTH

Notable quotations from Pope Francis and official teachings of the Roman Catholic Church

PRACTICE NONVIOLENCE

If violence has its source in the human heart, then it is fundamental that nonviolence be practiced before all else in families.

"GENEROUS CONCERN "

The family is the indispensable crucible in which spouses, parents and children, brothers and sisters, learn to communicate and to show generous concern for one another, and in which frictions and even conflicts have to be resolved not by force but by dialogue, respect, concern for the good of the other, mercy and forgiveness. From within families, the joy of love spills out into the world and radiates to the whole of society.

RESPECT NOT FEAR

An ethics of fraternity and peaceful coexistence between individuals and among peoples cannot be based on the logic of fear, violence and closed mindedness, but on responsibility, respect and sincere dialogue.

THE POPE'S PLEAS

... I plead for disarmament and for the prohibition and abolition of nuclear weapons: nuclear deterrence and the threat of mutual assured destruction are incapable of grounding such an ethics... I plead with equal urgency for an end to domestic violence and to the abuse of women and children.

BEGINS IN THE HOME

The politics of nonviolence have to begin in the home and then spread to the entire human family.

LET GOD'S MERCY IN

The Jubilee of Mercy ... encouraged each one of us to look deeply within and to allow God's mercy to enter there. The Jubilee taught us to realize how many and diverse are the individuals and social groups treated with indifference and subjected to injustice and violence.

DON'T MISS OUT

"Saint Therese of Lisieux invites us to practice the little way of love, not to miss out on a kind word, a smile or any small gesture which sows peace and friendship. An integral ecology is also made up of simple daily gestures that break with the logic of violence, exploitation and selfishness." (Apostolic Exhortation, Amoris Laetitia)

BUILDING PEACE

"All of us want peace. Many people build it day by day through small gestures and acts; many of them are suffering, yet patiently persevere in their efforts to be peacemakers." (Pope Francis, 5/5/2014)... May we dedicate ourselves prayerfully and actively to banishing violence from our hearts, words and deeds, to becoming nonviolent people and to building nonviolent communities that care for our common home.
