The Pinetree Crosses

Last April on a Sunday we took one of our "nowhere" drives, my husband was quietly driving a back road. I was occupied in the front passenger seat watching the scenery.

I noticed out of the corner of my eye that my husband was straining to look out my window. This startled me, since his eyes should be on the road in front of him. I asked him what he was looking at out the windows, and he quietly replied, "Nothing." His eyes went back to the road in front of him.

After a few minutes, I looked over at my husband and noticed a tear running down his cheek. I asked him what was wrong. This time he told me, "I was just thinking about Pop and a story he had once told me." Of course, because it had to do with his Pop I wanted to know the story, so I asked him to share it with me. He said, "When I was about 8 years old, Pop and I were out fishing and that's when he told me that the Pine trees know when it is Easter."

I had no idea what he meant by that, so I pressed him for more information.

He continued on... "The Pine trees start their new growth in the weeks before Easter -- if you look at the tops of the Pine trees two weeks before, you will see the yellow shoots. As the days get closer to Easter Sunday, the tallest shoot will branch off and form a cross. By the time Easter Sunday comes around, you will see that most of the Pine trees will have small yellow crosses on all of the tallest shoots."

I turned to look out the window and I couldn't believe my eyes. It was a week before Easter, and you could see all of the trees with the tall yellow shoots stretching to Heaven.

The tallest ones shone in the sunlight like rows of tiny golden crosses.

Note:

Fr. Ed made a statement before the 2:00 and 4:00 PM Masses several weeks ago about the Girl Scouts Association. Upon further research, he has found that statement to be not true.

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

Fr. Ed

PLEASE, DO NOT BE TAKEN IN BY THIS SCAM

A number of our parishioners have been contacted by e-mail or text messages purporting to be from one of our parish priests. The message is that the priest is visiting someone in the hospital and the person is in need of a little compassion. You are asked to go purchase gift cards. When this is done, the person then tells you to read the numbers on the back of the gift card to him/her. Our priests will NEVER contact parishioners asking them to purchase gift cards.

important resource to parishes. Because of your generosity, we participate in the celebration of beautiful liturgies glorifying the Lord our God, but we also have access to liturgical guidelines, workshops, and assistance with our music programs. For more information visit www.orlandodiocese.org/ministries-offices/liturgy-music-welcome.

Please visit www.cfcf.org/OCA/give to make a gift online.

The bulletin was submitted prior to receiving information on the status of our 2019 Our Catholic Appeal. We will provide updated information next week. The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. - Lk 24:1b-3

(For those who can get to church, the TV or online liturgy does not fulfill the Sunday Mass obligation.)

LOOK FOR THIS TODAY AT MASS TODAY-

THE OFFERTORY

Now begins the second "half" of Mass: the Liturgy of the Eucharist. It is known also as the "Mass of the Faithful", because in ancient times only the baptized were allowed to stay at Mass for this portion. Nor could any Christian stay who had arrived with an unforgiven mortal sin. Now begins the sacrificial portion of the Mass: the offering, the remembrance that Jesus asked of his apostles at the Last Supper. The sacrifice starts with an offering and that is why this moment is called the offertory. We begin by bringing our gifts - material and spiritual - to the altar. We bring what we have and what we are, and we acknowledge that it all comes from God and it all belongs to God. Since the earliest days of the Church, Christians have used this time "to take up a collection" or "pass the basket". Today we collect money that is used for the upkeep of the Church and funding of charitable activities. In the first century, Christians would bring whatever they had and place it by the altar, leaving it at the disposal of the priest or bishop. This included: grapes, figs, olives, pears, apples, peaches, cherries almonds and plums, and occasionally flowers. Such charity has always been the mark of Christianity, setting it apart from pagan offerings. Over time, it became necessary to limit the gifts that should be brought to the altar during the offertory. The Church wanted people to distinguish the essential elements - which are those that Jesus offered, the bread and the wine - from all other gifts we wish to give to Christ and to charity. Still the gifts we bring to the altar stand not just for themselves, but for all creation - and for our very selves.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 638 (CCC): The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning truth of our faith in Christ, a faith believed and lived as the central truth by the first Christian community; handed on as fundamental by Tradition; established by documents of the New Testament; and preached as an essential part of the Paschal Mystery along with the cross.

REFLECTION:

Of all the basic beliefs that a Christian ought to meditate on often, the truth of Jesus' actual resurrection holds a special place.
