To accommodate those who wish to have a mass intention in memory of someone they love but are unable to get a particular day because the intentions at St. Timothy have been filled, St. Timothy now offers a Private Mass Association where a priest friend of Fr. Ed will offer a mass for that intention. The intention will be forwarded to the priest along with the name and address of the person requesting the mass and the priest will send a note confirming that the mass with the intention has been offered. For those interested in this association, please come to the Church Office.

GOD'S ROSEBUD
FOR JULY 7, 2019

A new minister was walking with an older, more seasoned minister in the garden one day. Feeling a bit insecure about what God had for him to do, he was asking the older preacher for some advice.

The older preacher walked up to a rosebush and handed the young preacher a rosebud and told him to open it without tearing off any petals.

The young preacher looked in disbelief at the older preacher and was trying to figure out what a rosebud could possibly have to do with his wanting to know the will of God for his life and ministry. But, because of his great respect for the older preacher, he proceeded to try to unfold the rose, while keeping every petal intact. It wasn't long before he realized how impossible this was to do.

Noticing the younger preacher's inability to unfold the rosebud without tearing it, the older preacher began to recite the following poem:

"It is only a tiny rosebud,
A flower of God's design;
But I cannot unfold the petals
With these clumsy hands of mine."

"The secret of unfolding flowers
Is not known to such as I.
GOD opens this flower so easily,
But in my hands they die."

"If I cannot unfold a rosebud,
This flower of God's design,
Then how can I have the wisdom
To unfold this life of mine?"

"So I'll trust in God for leading
Each moment of my day.
I will look to God for guidance
In each step of the way."

"The path that lies before me,
Only my Lord knows,
I'll trust God to unfold the moments,
Just as He unfolds the rose."

*My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.

SAINT HENRY

SAINT OF THE DAY FOR JULY 13
(MAY 6, 972 – JULY 13, 1024)

SAINT HENRY'S STORY

Image: Stained glass window of Saint Henry | photo by Lawrence, OP | flicker

As German king and Holy Roman Emperor, Henry was a practical man of affairs. He was energetic in consolidating his rule. He crushed rebellions and feuds. On all sides he had to deal with drawn-out disputes so as to protect his frontiers. This involved him in a number of battles, especially in the south in Italy; he also helped Pope Benedict VIII quell disturbances in Rome. Always his ultimate purpose was to establish a stable peace in Europe.

According to eleventh-century custom, Henry took advantage of his position and appointed as bishops men loyal to him. In his case, however, he avoided the pitfalls of this practice and actually fostered the reform of ecclesiastical and monastic life. He was canonized in 1146.

REFLECTION

All in all, this saint was a man of his times. From our standpoint, he may have been too quick to do battle and too ready to use power to accomplish reforms. But granted such limitations, he shows that holiness is possible in a busy secular life. It is in doing our job that we become saints.

LOOK FOR THIS TODAY AT MASS TODAY
-THE GREAT AMEN.

The word Amen completes a prayer. It signifies our consent to all the words that precede it. Jesus used it also as a preface to especially solemn teachings. He did it especially in connection with the doctrine of the Eucharist. Four times in his Bread of Life Discourse you'll pronounce a double Amen. For example, in John 6:32 he says Amen, Amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." Amen, in this sacred context means "truly". It means "I believe". It means "yes." In Jesus' culture it was pronounced as the affirmation of an oath. Those who pronounced it put their lives on the line. They committed themselves to a serious undertaking. They pledged their full and unreserved faith. Curiously, it also means "Jesus." In the Book of Revelation (Rev 3:14), we find an angel refer to Jesus as "The Amen". The faithful and true witness."

HEALING OUR CHURCH DISCUSSION GROUPS COMING

Come together for six weeks in small groups with fellow parishioners to pray and reflect on the clergy abuse crisis and to envision a path forward as a Roman Catholic family of faith. Each session is no more than 90 minutes and includes a handbook. RENEW International, a Catholic nonprofit organization, has designed this healing process. Fr. Ed has appointed a Parish Coordinating Team to move this initiative forward. We want to form two small groups with no less than six, and no more than twelve participants each. This is a pilot program so the diocese can evaluate its relevancy and usefulness for the whole diocese. Your evaluation of this program is invaluable. Times of the sessions to be determined, most likely in a weekday morning. If interested call Mike MacDonald (352-753-0989) or email at mmacdonald@sttimothycc.com.

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT
ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 1141(CCC): Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that full, conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of liturgy.

REFLECTION:

One of the great challenges of the Christian life is to take one hour each week on Sunday and to give it back to God. Just having our body there can be enough of a challenge, but the Church suggests "full, conscious, and active participation."

PRAYER:

Jesus, thank you for the opportunity to attend Mass; help us to honor you by our worship.

SAINT BENEDICT
 SAINT OF THE DAY FOR JULY 11
 (c. 480 – c. 547)

SAINT BENEDICT'S STORY

It is unfortunate that no contemporary biography was written of a man who has exercised the greatest influence on monasticism in the West. Benedict is well recognized in the later Dialogues of Saint Gregory, but these are sketches to illustrate miraculous elements of his career.

Benedict was born into a distinguished family in central Italy, studied at Rome, and early in life was drawn to monasticism. At first he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world—pagan armies on the march, the Church torn by schism, people suffering from war, morality at a low ebb.

He soon realized that he could not live a hidden life in a small town any better than in a large city, so he withdrew to a cave high in the mountains for three years. Some monks chose Benedict as their leader for a while, but found his strictness not to their taste. Still the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of gathering various families of monks into one "Grand Monastery" to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity, and permanent worship in one house. Finally he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world—Monte Cassino, commanding three narrow valleys running toward the mountains north of Naples.

The Rule that gradually developed prescribed a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under a common abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation, and Benedictine charity has always shown concern for the people in the surrounding countryside. In the course of the Middle Ages, all monasticism in the West was gradually brought under the Rule of St. Benedict.

Today the Benedictine family is represented by two branches: the Benedictine Federation encompassing the men and women of the Order of St. Benedict, and the Cistercians, men and women of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance.

REFLECTION

The Church has been blessed through Benedictine devotion to the liturgy, not only in its actual celebration with rich and proper ceremony in the great abbeys, but also through the scholarly studies of many of its members. Liturgy is sometimes confused with guitars or choirs, Latin or Bach. We should be grateful to those who both preserve and adapt the genuine tradition of worship in the Church.
