WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

We would like to extend a warm welcome this week to these new parishioners at St. Timothy: Charles and Joan Bachman; Edward and Paula Conrad; Kathryn DeNardo; Charles Fleisher; Bud Gilligan; and Richard and Judy Sunderman.

YOU ARE THE WINNER!

Married couples, skip the lottery this month and treat yourself to a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend, your ticket to better communication and more love. The next weekend in the Central Florida area will be September 13th through 15th in Orlando. To get more information or to register call Bob/Sheila Baker @407-647-4289 or go to WWME.ORG. You will be glad you did!

PRIVATE MASS ASSOCIATION

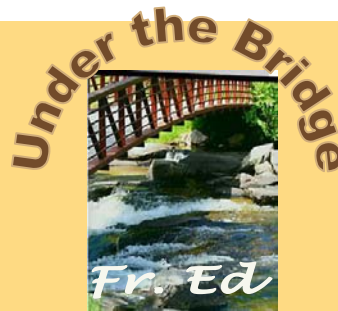

To accommodate those who wish to have a mass intention in memory of someone they love but are unable to get a particular day because the intentions at St. Timothy have been filled, St. Timothy now offers a Private Mass Association where a priest friend of Fr. Ed will offer a mass for that intention. The intention will be forwarded to the priest along with the name and address of the person requesting the mass and the priest will send a note confirming that the mass with the intention has been offered. For those interested in this association, please come to the Church Office.

DAILY RECITATION OF THE ROSARY

Recitation of the Rosary at 6:45 AM Monday-Friday, Prior to the 7:15 AM Mass and at 8:00 AM Monday – Saturday, Prior to 8:30 AM Daily Mass.

Dear Parishioners of St. Timothy Parish,

I want to give you a status on our trip to Rome this October. The number of people interested in joining me are low. They may, hopefully, continue to grow. Please sign up at the office if you are interested.

We currently have fourteen parishioner and friends who have signed up but I would like that number to advance to 30, if possible.

The per person fare is $4999.00. This tariff will not increase. I am very excited about the trip and will do my best to assist Departure Point Travel with our plan of beautiful sites, meaningful worship and prayer and enjoying one another's companionship.

Please consider joining me.

Fr. Ed

My deepest thanks to all parishioners of St. Timothy parish for all you do to increase charity and to take on sacrifice.
Fr. Ed

Dear Parishioners of St. Timothy Parish,

Each year we support the Bishop Grady Villas Harvest Ball by making up baskets for the auction. The Harvest Ball is Saturday, October 19th.

Many of you have donated baskets in the past. In fact, many of our ministries within our parish have donated beautiful baskets for the Harvest Ball.

The baskets can be theme-based if you wish. Examples: a Gator basket, a games basket for kids, a basket filled with wine and glasses, etc.

I pray that you will assist me in the project.

My sincere thanks.

Fr. Ed

LOOK FOR THIS TODAY AT MASS TODAY
 ...THE LORD'S PRAYER:

At the beginning of Jesus' ministry, his disciples asked him: "Lord, teach us to pray", and Jesus delighted in their request. He responded by giving them the prayer we call the "Our Father" or "Lord's Prayer".

The Church celebrates this as the most cherished prayer and gives it a prominent place at Mass. Indeed, it has been part of Christian assemblies since the very beginning of Christianity. The prayer is rightly called a "summary of the whole Gospel". There are few prayers that should be so regularly on our lips and in our heart. There is no prayer so appropriate for this part of the Mass...the Our Father prepares us for Communion Those opening words bring us face to face with the extraordinary revelation of Jesus Christ. He alone is the true, natural Son of God. The opening of the Lord's Prayer reminds us that we can call God "our Father" because of the generous outpouring of the Holy Spirit on everyone who proclaims Jesus as Lord. The first of God's gifts is the gift of himself. He desires to give himself to us perfectly in eternal life. But that giving begins now and arrives in a supreme way in the Mass. There is a world of difference between knowing God as "Our Father" and knowing him as "Creator" or "Lord". "Father" denotes a loving, familiar, familial relationship. It means he is our protector, friend, guide, teacher, provider, doing everything he does for us with a tender and personal affection. If God is our Father, then we must be brothers and sisters. This truth is at the heart of the Christian community – the Church. We are one with each other because we are one with Jesus the Lord. To pray to God as "our Father" is to recognize that we have responsibilities to each other as members of the same family. We are not merely components of a cultural, political, economic, or social entity. We are a faith community. We call God our Father, but still we recognize his utter transcendence. We pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven", and we "hallow" his name. We proclaim his name to be "holy", that is, "set apart." As close as we can draw to the divine life – through the Holy Spirit and in Jesus Christ – God is still utterly beyond us, transcendent, all-holy, and infinite. When we pray to "our Father" we recognize that it is God's holiness that attracts the human heart. It attracts because of the goodness it implies, a goodness of such intensity that it dispels any servile fear and touches the sinful heart with awe and reverence. The splendor and holiness of God must be taken seriously. God is holy and requires holiness and will judge us on how well we correspond to the holiness he has shared with us. Thus the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Still that "fear" is not the cowering of a slave, but rather the awe of a child before a parent who can do so much, be so much, and give so much. So we pray this prayer with special attention when we pray it at Mass. As we do, we pray in continuity with the apostles and through them with Jesus as he gathers his Church. We pray in a way that is guaranteed to turn our hearts and minds to God.

VENERABLE FULTON SHEEN SPEAKS . . .

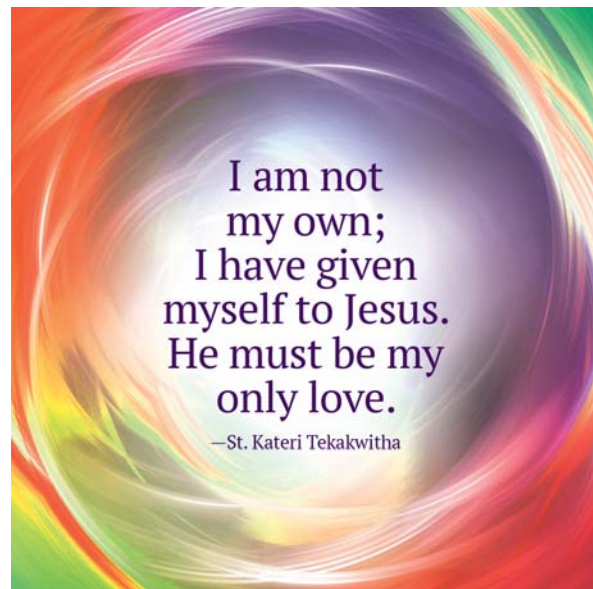

The open-minded, they are willing to hear all sides, but refuse to accept any. These minds are so "open" that ideas pass right through. It is to be remembered that the "open mind" is no more important than the open mouth. Unless the mouth shuts on something, the body is never nourished. Unless the mind shuts on truth, it is never at peace.

WELCOME INACTIVE/RETURNING CATHOLICS

CATECHISM CORNER: HOW TO EAT AN ELEPHANT
 ONE BITE AT A TIME

Article 1145 (CCC): Sacramental celebration is woven from signs and symbols. In keeping with the divine pedagogy (the practice of teaching) of salvation, their meaning is rooted in the work and creation and in human culture...and fully revealed in the person and work of Christ.

REFLECTION:

The Catholic liturgy as we know it today is part of a long tradition and was developed in a time when most people could not read. For this reason it is heavy with symbolism and ritual which speaks to us in a deep, subconscious way.

PRAYER:

Lord, let us see your glory in the power of signs and symbols.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL
SAINT OF THE DAY FOR JULY 16

THE STORY OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. For centuries the Carmelites have seen themselves as specially related to Mary. Their great saints and theologians have promoted devotion to her and often championed the mystery of her Immaculate Conception. Saint Teresa of Avila called Carmel "the Order of the Virgin." Saint John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison. Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus believed that Mary cured her from illness. On her First Communion day, Thérèse dedicated her life to Mary. During the last days of her life she frequently spoke of Mary.

There is a tradition—which may not be historical—that Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock, a leader of the Carmelites, and gave him a scapular, telling him to promote devotion to it. The scapular is a modified version of Mary's own garment. It symbolizes her special protection and calls the wearers to consecrate themselves to her in a special way. The scapular reminds us of the gospel call to prayer and penance—a call that Mary models in a splendid way.

REFLECTION

The Carmelites were known from early on as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." The title suggests that they saw Mary not only as "mother," but also as "sister." The word sister is a reminder that Mary is very close to us. She is the daughter of God and therefore can help us be authentic daughters and sons of God. She also can help us grow in appreciation of being sisters and brothers to one another. She leads us to a new realization that all human beings belong to the family of God. When such a conviction grows, there is hope that the human race can find its way to peace.

Mary, under the Title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, is the Patron Saint of: Chile
