

May 21, 2017 Sixth Sunday of Easter Lectionary: 55 Gospel JN 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Spiritual Reflection: Advocate is a person who speaks on your behalf. Jesus tells the disciples that the Spirit of Truth will be their advocates. We could ask for no better advocate.

Spiritual Questions:

1. Who are you advocate for?
2. Who are you not an advocate for?
3. Why do you keep God's commandments?
4. Who has been advocate for you?
5. Who have you fail to be an advocate for?
