A Note on the Processional:

The processional should be one piece of music to be used during the entire processional for the wedding party and the bride. The pieces listed below may be used in this manner. If it is wished to have different music for the bride, or for music to be different for those lighting the unity candle, this is also possible. Please then just select two options, and mark the number 1, 2, or 3 to indicate the order.
